

Army Spouses' Prayer

Dear Lord,

I am proud to be wed to one who defends freedom and peace. My challenges are many, and I pray for love and guidance to meet them.

Special to me are the symbols representing my country, community, and home. I seek the wisdom and grace to be true to their meaning.

My national flag represents freedom. Let me never forget, or take for granted, the hope I shows the world. Bless those who daily make sacrifices for that freedom.

As I enter the gateway to each new military community, guide me to reach out to others and help keep it a wholesome place for all who live, work, or pass through. May my charity be given without thought of personal reward. My wedding ring represents eternity and never-ending love. Let me celebrate all of the joys of our togetherness and find comfort in them during times of separation. I pray also that we are spared the ultimate sacrifice of duty to country, but that I can continue to uphold my commitment to honor and duty if that prayer is not granted.

My house is a symbol of our family and its unity. No matter where it is located or how many times its address changes, it is the place where we share memories of the past and build dreams for the future. Make willing my hands to do even the smallest tasks that make our house a home.

Please grant us your continued blessings, increased strength and compassionate guidance as we live our lives as an Army Family, whether on active duty or after retirement. AMEN

*Please join the family for lunch
and a time of fellowship in the church basement.*

The family of Gloria Kloster thanks you for your presence here today, for your thoughts, prayers, and other acts of kindness shown to them.

Army Spouses' Prayer

Dear Lord,

I am proud to be wed to one who defends freedom and peace. My challenges are many, and I pray for love and guidance to meet them.

Special to me are the symbols representing my country, community, and home. I seek the wisdom and grace to be true to their meaning.

My national flag represents freedom. Let me never forget, or take for granted, the hope I shows the world. Bless those who daily make sacrifices for that freedom.

As I enter the gateway to each new military community, guide me to reach out to others and help keep it a wholesome place for all who live, work, or pass through. May my charity be given without thought of personal reward. My wedding ring represents eternity and never-ending love. Let me celebrate all of the joys of our togetherness and find comfort in them during times of separation. I pray also that we are spared the ultimate sacrifice of duty to country, but that I can continue to uphold my commitment to honor and duty if that prayer is not granted.

My house is a symbol of our family and its unity. No matter where it is located or how many times its address changes, it is the place where we share memories of the past and build dreams for the future. Make willing my hands to do even the smallest tasks that make our house a home.

Please grant us your continued blessings, increased strength and compassionate guidance as we live our lives as an Army Family, whether on active duty or after retirement. AMEN

*Please join the family for lunch
and a time of fellowship in the church basement.*

The family of Gloria Kloster thanks you for your presence here today, for your thoughts, prayers, and other acts of kindness shown to them.

