

Harriet Sadie (Sherwood) Miller was born July 2, 1921, in Draper, SD, to Sidney W. Sherwood and Katherine J. (Traub) Sherwood.

She married Art Miller on September 21, 1941. To this union, three children were born: Janice (Dennis) Jensen, Sturgis, Marian Dalton, Sturgis, and Dennis (Vixie) Miller, Sheridan, WY. Harriet has 10 grandchildren, 4 step-grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, and 35 great-great-grandchildren.

Harriet and Art farmed and ranched until June of 1990, when they sold the farm and moved to Whitewood. They enjoyed several years of retirement, moving to Sturgis in 2000 to be closer to the nursing home where Art resided. After Art's death in 2006, she moved to Janice Jensen's home and lived there 11 years before entering the nursing home.

She was a faithful servant of the Lord and spent many hours reading her bible. She loved Sundays so she could go to church. Harriet was a member of the United Methodist Church in Sturgis.

Harriet went to be with Jesus on August 7, 2020. She will be remembered as a loving mother, grandma, and friend.

Harriet said, "My greatest desire for my family is for them to know the Lord."

Memorials have been established to the United Methodist Church and to Northern Hills Hospice.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch at the Baymont Inn and Suites in Sturgis following the graveside service. We thank you for your presence and condolences.

Psalm 91

*Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High
Will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
My God, in whom I trust."
Surely He will save you from the fowler's snare
And from the deadly pestilence.
He will cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you will find refuge;
His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.
You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
Nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
Nor the plague that destroys at midday.
A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand,
But it will not come near you.
You will only observe with your eyes
And see the punishment of the wicked.
If you say, "The Lord is my refuge,"
And you make the Most High your dwelling,
No harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent.
For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;
They will lift you up in their hands,
So that you will not strike your foot against a stone.
You will tread on the lion and the cobra;
You will trample the great lion and the serpent.
"Because he loves me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him;
I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.
He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble,
I will deliver him and honor him.
With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."*
