

Jeanne Sue Nusom

Jeanne Sue Rose was born to Earl and Maxine (Joy) Rose on March 8, 1960, in Chamberlain, SD. She was raised in Chamberlain, SD, with two brothers, Jerry and Jay Rose. The family moved and then lived in Mobridge from 1968-1973, and then in 1973, they moved to Sturgis. Jeanne graduated from Sturgis and went onto Madison to go to college at SDSU from 1979-1981.

One of her big thrills in life is that she got to go visit Paris and England. Jeanne was a nanny in Sturgis for a couple of years. She later taught and owned her own preschool in her home and in May of 1984, she met the love of her life, Dick Nusom and they were married October 13, 1984, in Sturgis. They moved to Colorado and Jeanne worked for several preschools and day cares. In 1993, they moved to Sturgis to be closer to her family. She worked for a while at a preschool in Rapid City and in the office of Rose's Sanitation, which her parents owned. She later taught and owned her own preschool in her home. Jeanne was a cat person and loved her kitty cats, and she also loved country music. Jeanne fought cancer from 2013-2020 off and on, and the cancer finally won.

Waiting at Heaven's Door

*Death beckoned her with outstretched hand
And whispered softly of an unknown land,
But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know
She took death's hand without fear
For God who safely brought her here
Had promised He would lead the way
Into eternity's bright day.*

*For none of us need go alone
Into the valley that is unknown,
But, guided by our Father's hand
We journey to the promise land.*

*She was our special loving Mother
You shared your lives with one another,
And you'll find comfort for your grief
In knowing her death brought you sweet relief
For, now she is free from all suffering and pain
And your great loss became her gain.....*

*You know her love is with you still
For she loved you in life and always will.
Love like hers can never end
Because it is the perfect blend
Of joy and sorrows, smile and tears
That just grew stronger with the years.
Love like hers can never die
For she's taken it with her to the sky...*

*So think of Mum as living above
No farther away than your undying love,
For now she is happy and free once more
And she's waiting for you at Heaven's door.*
