

A HEART OF GOLD, A Quiet Flame

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
JAMIRA LEVON WALKER, SR.

*He walked this earth with quiet grace,
A gentle light in a hurried place.
Not one to shout, but still was heard,
A healing smile, a thoughtful word.*

*Behind his eyes, a steady flame,
A soul too kind to seek out fame.
Yet all who knew him felt his glow,
In every deed, he let love show.*

*He bore the weight, he played his part,
With steady hands and lion's heart.
A father true, whose proudest role
Was loving those who made him whole.*

*He didn't ask for much applause,
But lived by faith and stood for cause.
"If I can help," his silent plea—
A servant heart, eternally.*

*He spoke in stillness, stood with grace,
And left a light we can't replace.
Though now he walks a higher road,
He left us seeds of hope he sowed.*

*So let us grieve, but not in vain,
For love like his still will remain.
In every child, each friend he knew,
His legacy comes into view.*

*Rest now, dear soul, your work is done.
The race is won, the crown is won.
We'll meet again, beyond the skies—
Where tears are wiped and spirits rise. .*

JAMIRA LEVON WALKER, SR.
December 26, 1988 – July 22, 2025
“JAY WALK”

*“If I Can Help Somebody As I Pass Along,
Then My Living Shall Not Be in Vain”*

Jamira Levon Walker, Sr., affectionately known as “Jay Walk,” was born on December 26, 1988, in Tallahassee, Florida, to Ira Walker, Jr. and Teresa Rena Brown. From the values and life lessons he learned from them and other members of his village, he became a kind person with a great spirit and a heart of pure gold. He was a lifetime resident of Tallahassee, Florida.

On one hand, Jamira was quiet natured and was content to keep to himself but on the other hand, he could connect with others in a most impactful manner. He was positive and inspiring; his interaction with them was just another way for him to remind them that life should not be taken for granted and that there is so much to be thankful for.

Additionally, Jamira’s sense of duty and discipline were evident in all areas of his life. He impressed upon others the importance of having integrity as well as a work ethic. He was employed at Amazon.

Jamira received his education from the Leon County School District and was a graduate of Leon High School. He chose to begin his career rather than to further his education, but he believed in education and was a die-hard FSU fan.

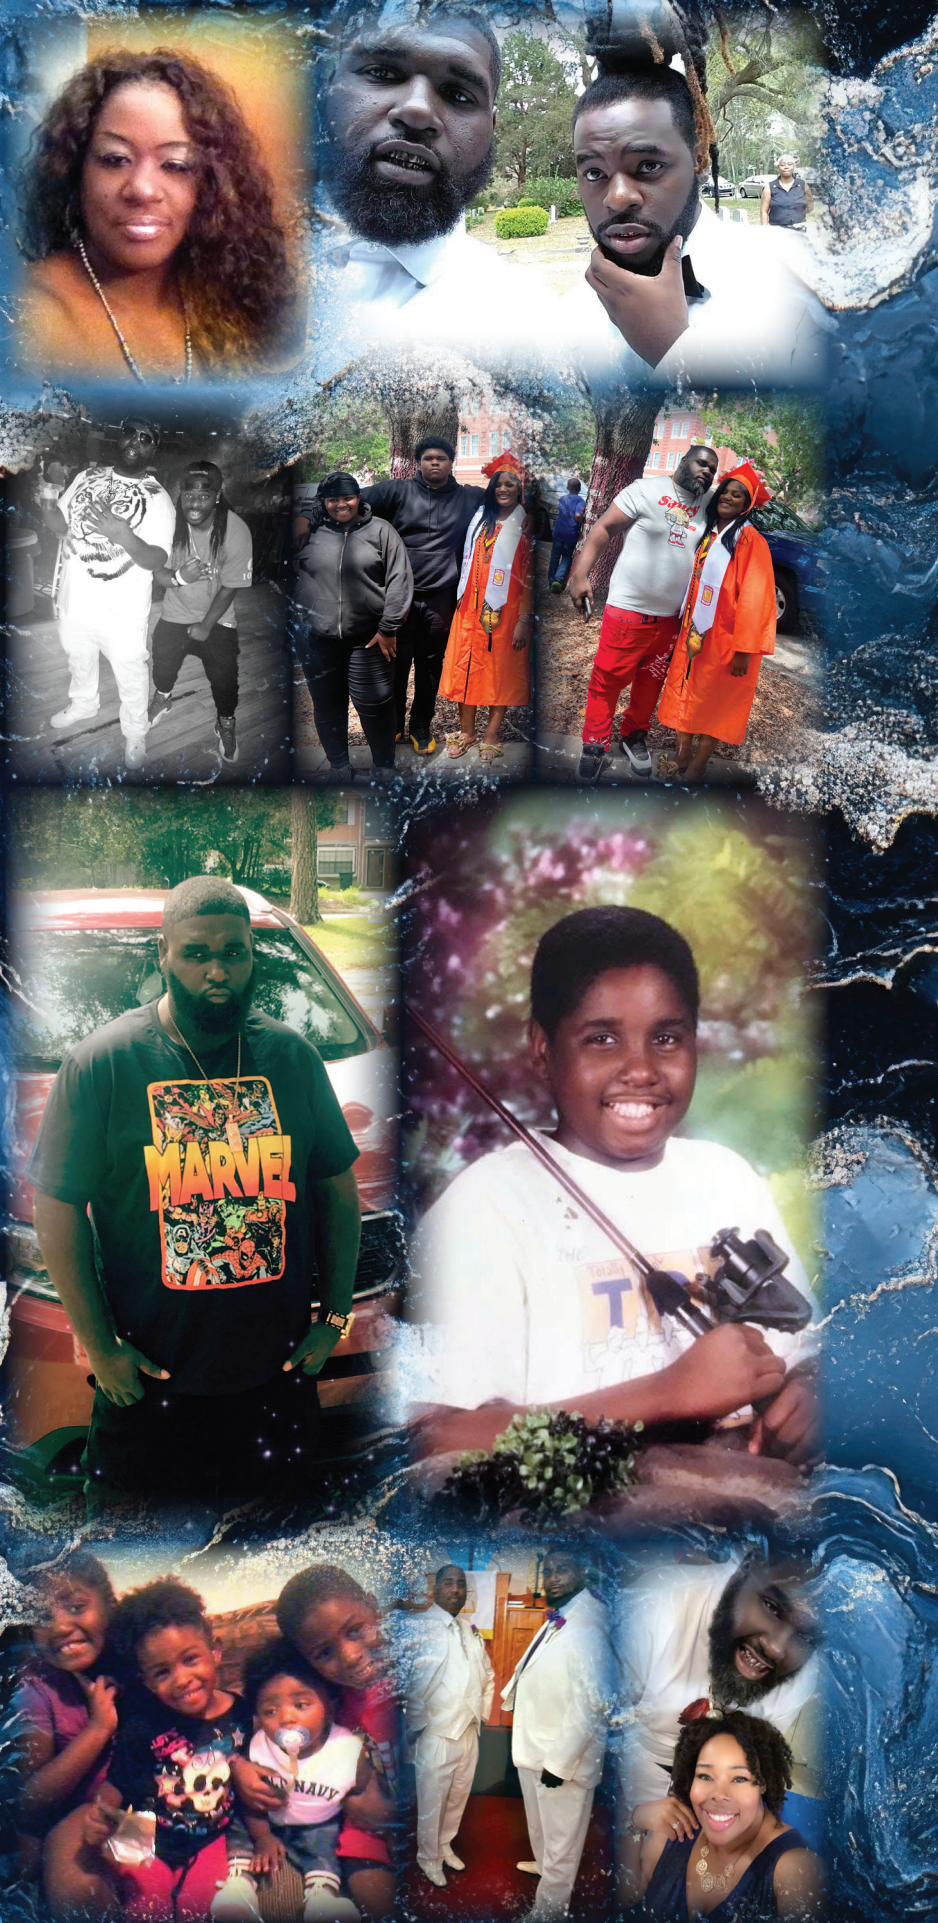

Jamira loved his children and was a father to them and for them. His desire was to always provide them with the things that would grant them productive and successful lives. His legacy was to provide them with a life full of purpose, hard work, and endless love.

Jamira Levon Walker, Sr.’s earthly assignment was to be a blessing to others. However, on Tuesday, July 22, 2025, he finished his task and was called to his eternal home to be at rest.

Jamira Levon Walker, Sr., is gone from his loved ones’ sight but will never depart from their hearts or their precious memories. Those who will miss him until they see him again are his parents: Ira (Mary) Walker, Jr. and Teresa Rena Brown, all of Tallahassee, FL; sons: Jamira Walker, Jr. of Tallahassee, FL and Sir Issac Moore of Ft. Lauderdale, FL; daughters: Jamiriya Walker and Destiny Walker, of Tallahassee, FL; brothers: Vincent Maurice Byrd and Kelvin Scott of Tallahassee, FL; sisters: Jada Walker and Jade (Brandon) Vaughn, all of Tallahassee, FL; paternal grandmother: Wihemina (Dennard) Bassa; maternal grandmother: Jessie McClenton of Phoenix, AZ; god sister: Danielle Smith; along with many other sorrowful relatives and loving friends.

Preceding Jamira Levon Walker, Sr., in death were his maternal grandmother: Eula McClenton and his paternal grandfather: Ira Walker, Sr.
