Acknowledgement

The ascension of our Matriarch to Heaven has brought us to this day. With your kind expressions of sympathy, we are reassured that we do not bear the grief alone. Your prayers strengthened our faith, your calls lifted our spirit, the flowers brightened the day and the food nourished our body. A special thank you to CURA Hospice and Edith Tunley for your gentle care provided. Whatever your gesture of love and support was, we acknowledge and thank you for your love, care and concern. May God bless you individually and collectively is our prayer.

Ms. Lois Doretha Wilson

"This is my story..."

In the fall of 1926, the Lord blessed the loving union of Robert L. and Mary V. [Smith] Biglow on the 10th day of October with the birth of a bouncing baby girl. They named her Lois Doretha.

Lois was born in Okmulgee county, where she grew up in a Christian home. She accepted Christ and was baptized at the impressionable age of 12. Her life was a Christian race, beginning with her primary education at Southwest Elementary School, and later the In Historic Dunbar High School in Okmulgee, followed by Teachers College in Chicago, Illinois.

She rounded the first curve of her race when she met a handsome gentleman, Leroy Wilson and their love became holy matrimony. While living in Chicago, she worked at Pioneer Paper Company and later for the Board of Education before the family returned to live in Okmulgee. In Okmulgee, she worked as an instructor at Central State County Barn. She was a longtime member of Northwest Chapel Missionary Baptist Church and served the Lord faithfully.

After the death of Leroy, Sr., she met up with an old school friend, Emzie Parker, Jr., and they were married for 6 years, before his death.

Sister Wilson was active in many social capacities during her life in Chicago as well as Oklahoma and loved hosting the annual family gathering during Memorial Day weekends.

Her Christian race, went from a sprint to a lap and through God's grace and mercy, became a marathon from 1 to 99 laps. Lois D. Wilson got her victory and finished the race on Saturday, January 17, 2026. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leroy L. Wilson, Sr., her parents, Robert and Mary Biglow, her daughter, Helen Brown and her son, Robert G. Wilson, Sr.; her brothers, Hilton and Milton Biglow, Alfred Biglow, and Arthur Biglow; her sisters, Maxine Austin and Carrie Mae Lewis, along with the rest of her Ancestors who've gone on before her.

She leaves in God's care: her son, Deacon Leroy L. Wilson, Jr., [Toni], Okmulgee, Oklahoma; her sisters, Erma Dean, Los Angeles, California and Joyce Byers [Mike], Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; a caravan of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; her sister in law and dear friends, Bernice Biglow, Sylvia Ruff and Norma Tuggle; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, too numerous to count.
