

Gone But Not Forgotten

Let the Angels in Heaven all rejoice and sing for God has given "Mrs. Annie Jo Coleman" her heavenly wings.
So fly high mamma "Annie" because one thing is for show
God seen your pain and suffering and He said no more.

This is a hard pill for this family to take,
but we must understand that God don't make no mistake.
She was a mother to the motherless, a true friend indeed with a heart to help anyone that she saw in need.

God place a Queen here on earth, for us all to love on before He called this beautiful angel to come on home.
So to my sisters and brother, "I love you" so just keep holding on I'm safe now no more suffering, God got me in His arms.

I'm really going to miss y'all, but God had a better plan
so just keep holding on to His unchanging hands.

And to my children, my world and my everything,
I love you and I'm sorry, I eft you all in so much pain.
And to all of my grandkids, grandma is going to really miss you, so I leave you my love to cherish, and good memories too.

And last I'll say goodbye to all of my friends,

I thank you for being a part of my life,
but my road has come to the end.

Obituary

Annie Jo Coleman was the fourth child of seven children born to the late Simuel and Erie Coleman. She was a member of Pleasant Grove A.M.E. Zion Church, where she was a faithful member until her health declined.

Annie attended Mack M. Matthews High School in Pinckard, Alabama. Later she attended Enterprise Junior College in Enterprise, Alabama, where she received her bachelor's degree in accounting. She later moved to Detroit, Michigan. After three years in Detroit, she returned to Ozark and established her own tax accounting business. It was named Income Tax Management. Annie Jo met a lot of people while working as an income tax consultant, and gained the love and trust of her clients. She was a community activist, who often spoke up for the citizens of Ozark on matters of concern. She was also a faithful employee of White Knight Management. Her kindness and diligent ways will truly be missed by those who loved her.

In 1973, she met her life partner, Charles Brown, who preceded her in death. To this union, two children were born. She was also preceded in death by her mother and father of Ozark, Alabama; brother, Cicero Coleman; sister, Mildred Coleman; and two nephews, Marcus Dyck and Christopher Coleman.

She leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Fatima Coleman; son, Jamaal Coleman, both of Ozark, Alabama; two grandsons, Jayshon Rivers and Jacques Coleman; two granddaughters, Cha'vonna Coleman and Jai'Yonnah Rivers; her "pride & joy", Jamarie Williams, all of Ozark, Alabama; one brother, Levi Coleman of Atlanta, Georgia; three sisters, Nellie McLean (Johnny) of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Shirley Dyck and Ida George both of Ozark, Alabama; a very special sister-in-law, Carolyn Watkins (Clarence); a very special brother-in-law, Ralph Brown (Wanda); sister-in-love, Catherine Patterson; other "children-in-love", Felicia, Anne, Jamie, and Jimmy Rhodes; Trashanda Rivers; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
