Obituary

Bobbie Gail McBeath was born on January 16, 1956 in Philadelphia, Mississippi, to the late Rita Fay & L.V. McBeath.

Bobbie Gail worked at Green Acre Farms for many, many years and at Laird Hospital as a cook for seventeen years until her health failed. She joined Pine Grove M.B. Church at an early age. Later, she joined St. Paul M.B. Church and attended service until her health failed.

She is preceded in death by her great grandmother Amanda Stewart, her grandparents J.B. and Venna McBeath; her parents, L.V. & Rita Fay McBeath; two brothers Ricky & Danny Ray McBeath; her husband Billy Ray Boyd; one granddaughter Tyneshia Jackson and a special friend Sam McDougle.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories six daughters; Wanda (Jerry) Moore, Lisa (Teddy) Jackson, both of Philadelphia, Mississippi; Christy Boyd of Melissa, Texas; Brenda Boyd of Anna, Texas; Monique Boyd and Starneisha Boyd of Memphis, Tennessee; two sons Eric (Lonnie) Burkes of Philadelphia, Mississippi, Billy Ray Boyd Jr. of Memphis, Tennessee; two sisters, Janice McBeath and Sherry (Joe) Stribling both of Philadelphia, Mississippi; one brother Charles (Lisa) McBeath of Union, Mississippi. Twenty eight grandchildren, eight great grand-children, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends, and one Goddaughter Lora Jean (Gregory) Bingham.

A Tribute From the Family

*With heavy hearts, we say goodbye,
Though memories will never die.*

God called you home,

Your work is done,

Your peaceful rest has now begun.

*You gave us love in countless ways,
Through all our life and all our days.*

*A mother, sister, faithful friend,
Your care and strength will never end.*

*Though we must part, you still remain
In gentle smiles, in whispered prayers,
In every lesson that you shared,
In all the love that filled the air.*

*We know you walk with Christ above,
Surrounded now by endless love.
Until we meet again someday,
In our hearts you'll always stay.*

*Forever loved,
The McBeath Family*
