

Dear Mom

My heart broke into a million pieces when you left. You were my Mom & best friend. You were one of the strongest women I knew. You taught me everything that I know. You fought so hard for so long. I never wanted you to struggle. You fought a good fight for a long time. You were tired and I knew you were tired, but you fought and held on until you knew I was going to be okay and I had the support system that I needed, to get your wings.

I miss you dearly and I love you. Til we meet again, I will continue to make you proud. Save me a spot so when we meet again we can watch all our shows together and have a great conversation. I know you are watching over me. I feel your spirit with me, you taught me what true unconditional love was.

Thanks
