

Marguerite "Marge" Violet Wulf

Marguerite "Marge" V. Wulf, 81, Vale, passed peacefully to Heaven Friday, March 21, 2014, at Hospice House, Rapid City, after a brief illness.

Marge was born May 14, 1932, in Deadwood, SD, to Mary B. (Wicks) and James M. Thybo. Marge, the eldest of 4 children, was raised on the family ranch in the Slim Buttes of Harding County and graduated from Bison High School. After high school, she worked at Mill's Drug in Rapid City. She was a teacher for one year then worked in the ASC office in Bison. She and her sister, Elaine, owned a dress shop in Bison.

Marge married the love of her life, Floyd Wulf, on March 14, 1959. No children were born to this union, however, Marge and Floyd had more children than they could count. Marge was "Mom" to nieces and nephews. Children and many adults considered Marge as their second Mom. Marge and Floyd farmed in the Mound City area, worked construction in Wyoming, before settling in Vale, SD, where Floyd farmed with his brother and Marge worked for the ASC Office in Sturgis and The Drug Store of Sturgis for 23 years.

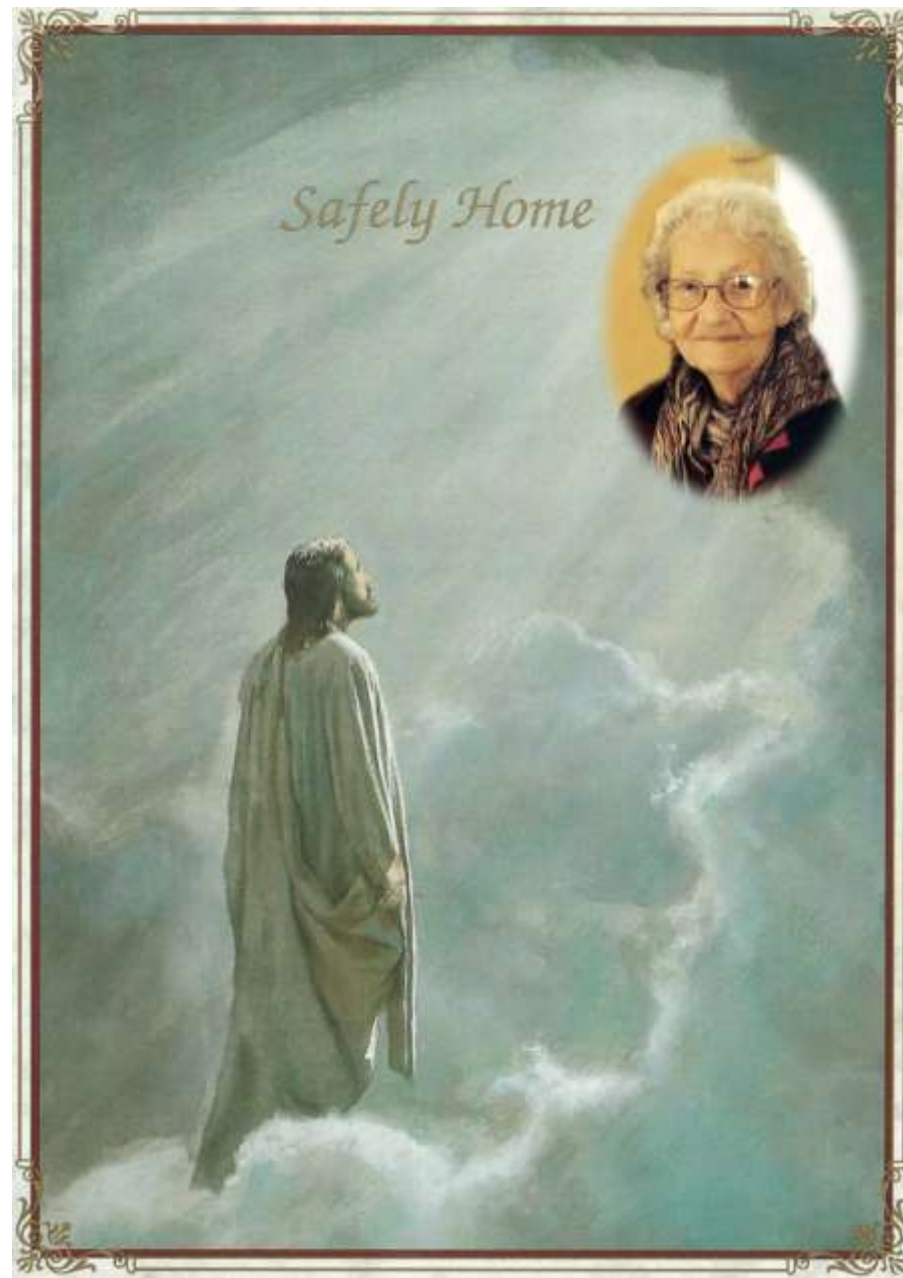

Marge and Floyd loved to fish, hunt for artifacts, square dance, and entertain friends in their home in Vale. The coffee was always on, a homemade treat baked and ready to eat, a piece of candy available for any "little one" that walked through the door. Their dogs, all except one named Tip, were always at their side, whether working pigs or begging for a dish of ice cream.

Marge is survived by her aunt, Helen Hoar; brother, Arlo "Buck" Thybo; sisters, Elaine (LeVern) Larson and Marie (James) Donohue; cousin, Lorraine Wicks Fuller; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials have been established to the Vale Community Hall, Vale Fire Department and Vale City Park.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch in the church hall following the committal service. We thank you for your presence and condolences.

*I am in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in heaven at last.
Did you wonder why I so calmly
trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And he came himself to meet me
in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely,
for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you,
so you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*
