

Don't Cry for Me

Don't cry for me.
I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me.
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy
and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me.
It was just my time,
but I will see you someday
on the other side.

Don't cry for me.
I am not alone.
The angels are with me
to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me.
This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you
when we meet again.

Go Rest High

On That Mountain

Kobe D. Weets, age 21, rural Clark, died on Monday, March 2, 2020, of apparent hypothermia exposure near Clark.

Kobe D. Weets was born on September 23, 1998, at Sioux Falls, SD, the son of Darin and Jamie (Denny) Weets. The family lived at Pipestone, MN, until he was in second grade, and then they moved to Clark where he attended elementary school and graduated from Clark High School in 2017. While in high school, Kobe participated in football, golf, and FFA. He began working for Pipestone System near Clark at the age of 16 and has worked for them since, working in the gilt development unit as a lead. He was known as one of the best sow breeders on the staff.

Some of his hobbies included hanging out with friends, rock climbing, mudding, camping, and hiking in the Black Hills, Wyoming, and other areas. Going on a Vikings trip recently at the US Bank Stadium in Minneapolis was a highlight for certain.

Preceding him in death were grandfathers, Scott Denny, Henry Weets, and Andy Zephier, great-grandparents, Jerry Phillips and Shirley Denny, and aunts, Marleen Johnson and Marilee Hook.

Survivors include his parents, Darin and Jamie Weets, siblings, Kameran, Kristian, Klinton, Mylee, Kathryn and Marilee Weets, and Gavin Fey. Also surviving are grandparents, Al and Barb Thompson and Wendy Zephier, and great-grandparents, Karen Albrecht and Dale Denny, and several other family members and friends.

The family of Kobe Weets thanks you for your presence here today, for your thoughts, prayers, and other acts of kindness shown to them.
