Celebrating the Life of Jordan Hamann

Jordan Gale Hamann age 20, Raymond, died as a result from injuries received in an automobile accident early Saturday morning, March 27, 2021. The accident occurred just east of Raymond. He was the son of RJ and Heather (Filipek) Hamann of Roslyn.

Visitation will be from 2 PM to 5 PM with a prayer service at 4 PM Saturday, April 3, 2021 at the Furness Funeral Home of Clark with CRE Michelle Mehlberg presiding. Burial will be at a later date. All of Jordan's family and friends should consider themselves as honorary casket bearers.

Jordan Gale Hamann was born June 21, 2000 at Prairie Lakes Hospital in Watertown, South Dakota to RJ and Heather Hamann.

Jordan grew up in Roslyn, South Dakota where he attended and graduated from Langford Area School in 2018. After receiving a full ride scholarship, Jordan attended Lake Area Tech in Watertown, South Dakota for Diesel Technology and graduated in May of 2020.

While growing up you would often find Jordan playing football, hunting, fishing, or fixing things. He never went anywhere without a couple of guns or fishing poles in his toolbox just in case he found a good hunting or fishing spot.

When Jordan was 7 he started showing cattle and pigs in 4-H. Jordan always had the dream of growing up and having his own farm and cattle. In 2020, Jordan purchased his own farm and cattle and he called it Hamann Brothers.

If you knew Jordan, you know he was all about his family and friends. Anytime you needed him he would be there to help out. No matter if Jordan was having a bad day or not you could always expect to see a smile on his face. Everyone that met Jordan loved him and his humor, even his nephew and cousins.

Jordan's favorite quote was "You only live once so you might as well enjoy it".

Jordan is survived by his parents RJ and Heather Hamann, sister Breanna (Tyler) Hazlett and son Camden, brothers Aaron and Tucker Hamann, Great Grandma Marie Hamann, Grandparents Gale and Mary Filipek, Brenda Hamann, and Randy (Special Friend Paula) Hamann, Aunt Sarah (Tim) Hamann and children Kaden and Dawson. Uncles Joe (Vicky) Filipek and children Abel and Asher, Justin (Brittany) Hamann and child Edgar and many other Aunts, Uncles, cousins and friends

Jordan is preceded in death by Great Grandparents Virgil Hamann, Alvina Weiss, Robert Heydlauff Sr, Darlene Heydlauff, Norma Heydlauff, and Joe and Dorthy Filipek, great uncle Jerry Filipek, great aunt Tracey Weiss, friend and classmate Jordan Hanson and coworker Dawson Smith.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate any memorials be directed to Clark County 4-H Clubs.

The family of Jordan Hamann thanks you for your presence here today, for your thoughts, prayers, and other acts of kindness shown to them.

Following the visitation, everyone is invited to the Raymond Legion Hall for lunch and a time of fellowship.
