

Amanda Jean Silvernagel

Amanda was born April 7, 1981, in Sturgis, SD, to William Silvernagel and Roseann (Parsons) Silvernagel. She was an amazing daughter to her family and an even more devoted mother to her precious daughter, Charleigh. Amanda was a good, kindhearted, generous, wonderful, and loving woman. She was strong willed, independent, and a hard worker. Amanda loved camping, fishing, grilling, cooking, and enjoying the great outdoors with family and friends. She loved hunting and collecting rocks, gardening, planting flowers, animals, and had innovative ideas and creativity. Amanda was an exceptional interior and exterior decorator. She was creative and loved her arts and crafts, creating beautiful boxes, paintings, poetry, and refinishing furniture. She will be loved and missed by all who had the great fortune of having her be a part of their lives.

Beautifully Stated

As we grow up, we learn that even the one person that wasn't suppose to ever let you down probably will. You will have your heart broken probably more than once and its harder every time. You'll break hearts too, so remember how it felt when yours was broken. You'll fight your best friend. You'll blame a new love for things an old one did. You'll cry because time is passing too fast, and you'll eventually lose someone you love. So take too many pictures, laugh to much, and love like you've never been hurt because every sixty seconds you spend upset is a minute of happiness you'll never get back.

Don't be afraid that your life will end, be afraid that it will never begin!
