TO THE LOVE OF MY LIFE,

Losing You is a loss that hurts more than anything. You are and will continue to be the Love of my life. Through all the joy, pain, sorrow, tears and anything else that the Lord saw fit for us to go through you was right there. Your love for me was unmatched because it came from a pure place. I never had to question your love for me because it was genuine. You stood by me in the worst and best of times. I am so thankful that God allowed me to experience your love for the last 18 years.

October 9, 2006, we made vows to God and to each other and with the help of God we have remained faithful to the vows. Our commitment to each other surpassed all others. I'm glad we learned early in our marriage to Keep Other Out and Let God In. God has always and will continue being the center of our life. I Love and Miss You so much but with the help of the Lord we will continue to make it. No need to worry about Your babies because they are in good hands and I will continue being the father to them as always.

Baby you have fought a good fight and you kept the faith. Even at times when I seen you in pain you still pressed to take care of our babies and you never let them see you give up. So, I love how you fought until the end that's when God said "Well Done, My Good and Faithful Servant. So, until we meet again, I Love you and will continue making you proud of me. I will cherish the memories, our laughs, our pillow talk and the good times

YOUR HUSBAND AND BAE,

Daygo

The Family's Message of Gratitude

We are truly blessed to have family and friends like you. The outpouring of love and support which you have so generously shared with us has exceeded even our imagination. We are indeed grateful for your calls, cards, florals, food, visits and prayers. Each has served as a source of strength for us. We ask that you continue to pray for us as we endeavor to accept God's Will. Please know that as you are praying for us, we will be praying for you. May God bless and keep you in His loving care.

Life Story

Kokila P. Williams - Fudge

APRIL 5, 1981 – JULY 31, 2024

“Well done, good and faithful servant.” – Matthew 25:23

KOKILA P. WILLIAMS-FUDGE, the daughter of Lucious Neal and Evelyn Mills Williams, was born in Thomasville, Georgia, on April 5, 1981. Kokila's journey on this earth was a testament to her unshakeable faith, vibrant spirit, and boundless love.

Affectionately known as “Ko-Ko,” she was a cherished member of the Gospel Spiritualettes, where her beautiful voice resonated with joy and praise. She was a songbird whose melodies uplifted and inspired all who heard them. Her deep love for the Lord was evident in every note she sang and every action she took. Kokila's faith was profound—she was saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost, a reflection of her deep spiritual commitment and divine grace.

“Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.”

Kokila's earthly father, Lucious Neal, preceded her in death, but her spirit now rests in the comforting embrace of the Lord. As we mourn her passing, we also celebrate the incredible joy and light she brought into our lives. Her laughter was infectious, her smile radiant, and her humility unparalleled. Kokila had a special affection for seafood and cherished the moments spent with family and friends. Her warm heart and generous spirit made her a beloved presence in the lives of all who knew her.

“I once was lost, but now am found; was blind, but now I see.”

Kokila's impact as a Certified Nursing Assistant was profound. Her compassionate care and dedication touched the lives of countless individuals. She provided not just medical care, but also comfort, kindness, and a listening ear to those in need. Kokila's patients and colleagues admired her unwavering commitment and the grace with which she performed her duties. Her legacy in the healthcare community is one of selfless service and genuine care for others.

“’Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved.”

In the words of Matthew 5:4, “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.” Kokila's legacy of faith, love, and service will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her. As we remember her life, we find solace in the knowledge that she is now at peace, embraced by the amazing grace of the Lord.

Kokila is gone from her loved ones' sight but will never depart from their hearts. Those who will miss her until they meet again are her devoted husband of eighteen years: Jermond Daygo Fudge, children who carry forward her legacy of love, faith, and strength: sons, Jacai Edwards, Javion Ware, Antwan (Brittany) Young; daughters, Janasia (Ah'Montaye) Hill, Ah'Zori Hadley and Serenity Fudge; loving and devoted mother: Evelyn Mills Williams; beloved siblings: Charles Barrington, Liwonda (Derrick) Plummer, and Eugenia Williams; mother-in-law and father-in-law: Bishop Johnny and Sheila Fudge, Sisters-in-law, Merelda (John) Davis and Sylvia (Richard) Gallon; brothers-in-law, Lamonte Fudge and Johnny Fudge; as well as her dear friends raised as sisters, Apostle Katabia (Kerrick) Henry and Natara Howard. Special friends Carnisha Rowe and Portia Fudge were also treasured companions in her life; along with a host of sorrowing relatives and other loving friends.
