

Stephanie Sue Payne was born to Steve and Susie Payne on January 17, 1974. She grew up in Eagle Butte, SD, where she formed many lasting friendships. As an adult she moved to Sturgis, SD, where she raised her four children, Crystina, Stevy, Ridge, and Mason.

Stephanie enjoyed life. She enjoyed the outdoors. She always wanted to be in the sun, visiting Mexico and Hawaii multiple times. She was a motorcycle lover, and was so proud of having her motorcycle license. If you knew Steph, she did everything to the fullest extent, and with passion. She worked at the State Bank of Eagle Butte alongside 2 siblings and her father.

She was great at organizing events and enjoyed giving to others. Her free time often included helping with events as significant as Eagle Butte's Celebration, "Hometown Days", and as intimate as niece's and nephew's birthdays. Steph loved and cherished every relationship she had with family and friends.

She left behind many that she held dear to her heart, including her grandson, Coleson Mack; her four kids, Crystina, Stevy, Ridge, and Mason; her adopted daughter, Kelli Louise and her children, Carter and Payton; her parents, Steve and Susie Payne; her siblings, Tammy and Glenn Gunville, and Russ and Amber Payne; and nieces and nephews, Glennee, Tia, Anders, Maxtyn, Brittany, Brooke, Camryn, and Reese.

In lieu of gifts, please consider making a donation to an Angel Tree in Steph's name.

Supermarket Flowers

~ by Ed Sheeran ~

*So I'll sing Hallelujah
You were an angel in the shape of my mum
When I fell down you'd be there holdin' me up
Spread your wings as you go
And when God takes you back
He'll say, "Hallelujah, you're home"
Hallelujah
You were an angel in the shape of my mum
You got to see the person I have become
Spread your wings and I know
That when God took you back
He said, "Hallelujah, you're home"*
