

A FALLEN LIMB

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me". Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls, I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day we're together again.

The Family's Message of Gratitude

We are indeed honored by your presence here today as we assemble to celebrate the life of our beloved, Sister Yvonne Lee Peek Johnson. While not having her here with us will be difficult to bear, we find comfort in knowing that she is now at peace with the Lord. Your calls, cards, florals, food, visits and prayers have all served as sources of strength for us as we endeavor to accept God's will. It is our fervent prayer that God will continue to keep you in His grace and loving care. We love and appreciate family and friends like you!

"The smallest act of kindness is worth more than the greatest intention."

Life Story

Yvonne Lee Peek Johnson
AUGUST 12, 1950 – OCTOBER 22, 2024

*“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me.”*

~ Psalm 23:4

Yvonne Lee Peek Johnson began her life journey as the only child of James Louis Peek and Lucille Dasher Peek. Born on August 12, 1950, in Quitman, Georgia, she grew up in the Cherry Lake community of Madison, Florida. She remained a lifelong resident of this community until her recent relocation to Tallahassee, Florida.

Earlier in her life, Yvonne received in faith what Jesus Christ offered in grace. She made a personal confession of her belief in Him, was baptized by faith, and joined High Antioch African Methodist Episcopal Church. As she matured in faith, she realized that “The joy of the Lord was her strength.” (Nehemiah 8:10) and that reading her Bible was her peace and key to victory. She showed more beauty in the world through her love of God, and her kind-heartedness and compassion for mankind. Her warm spirit together with her welcoming smile were also comforting to individuals she met along the way.

As Yvonne matured into her role as the family matriarch, she demonstrated her steadfast devotion to her family. She was an encourager who emphasized that her children and grandchildren give their best effort at whatever they attempted to do. She also instilled in them godly wisdom, just as she learned from her mother and grandmother, and the importance of knowing family and family history because “Family is everything.”

Yvonne Lee Peek Johnson’s life journey concluded when she closed her eyes for the last time on Tuesday, October 22, 2024, and opened them in eternity. Her hope was in knowing that through the Master of all life, she would see her loved ones again.

The cherished life legacy, endless love, and family values of Yvonne Lee Peek Johnson will be embedded in their everlasting memories that bind them together as family. Those who will miss her until they meet again are her devoted daughter: Eliza Parrish; faithful sons: Willie Parrish, Jr. and Chester (LaShonda) Parrish; loving grandchildren: LaShandre Brooks, Karrone Bouie, Keenen Brooks, Donte Brooks, Peyton Parrish, Kynadi Parrish, and Christopher James Parrish; affectionate great-grandchildren: Christopher Wells, Jr., Matthew Brooks, and Shantaya Bouie; god-children: Constantine Thomas and Latasha (Henry) Hamilton; along with other sorrowing relatives and loving friends.

Loved ones who preceded Yvonne Lee Peek Johnson in death were her parents: James Louis Peek and Lucille Dasher Peek; son: Rastus James Moore; aunt: Birda Dasher Williams, and uncle: George Williams.
