

Younghee Louise Higgins, faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ, went home to be with her Lord the morning of September 8, 2022.

Younghee was born on December 3, 1949, in Chinju, South Korea. She graduated from Chinju High School in 1968. Her family is still living in South Korea.

At the age of 28, she was invited to go to New York City and attended the Fashion Institute of Technology where she became a fashion designer with the Cheryl Tiegs line of clothing. The company sent her to South Korea as a quality control manager. It was there she met Chaplain (LTC) Hardie Mack Higgins. A friendship blossomed into a loving relationship and the two were married on April 15, 1988. Hardie called Younghee his princess. In 1996 she graduated with a Bachelor of Theology degree from Christian University.

In 2006 Younghee and Hardie moved to Newkirk, Oklahoma. They both loved their community and had a passion to share the love of their Savior with everyone they met. Even after Hardie's death on January 23, 2012, Younghee continued to be a faithful witness for her Lord. It was in her hearts' desire for the churches of Newkirk to unite to grow the Kingdom of God.

Survivors include a sister, DeKim Hur; brother, Chang Mu Seo; nephew, Jeong Wonsuhn; son, Christopher Higgins; daughter, Leslie Higgins Sykes and husband Matthew; grandson, Jesse Sykes; a spiritual daughter, Earlene Frink; sisters-in-law, Jacque Graham, Eleanore Johnson; and close friends Greg and Constance Meyer, Cheryl Smith, Carol Cook, Jeng Smith, Suhk.suh; as well as many other friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mansu Heo and Chong Lim Chon; her husband, Hardie Higgins; and brothers-in-law, Hal Graham, and Ralph Johnson..

*The family of Younghee Higgins wishes to extend their deepest appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown during

Tomorrow

The Twenty Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,
That Jesus came and called my name
and took me by the hand.
And when I walked through heaven's gates,
I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me,
from His golden throne.
He said, "This is eternity
and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past
and here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow,
but today will always last.
And since each day is the same,
there's no longing for the past.
You have been faithful,
so trusting and true,
though there were times you did
some things you knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven,
and now at last you're free.
So won't you take My hand
and share My life with Me?"
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*
