

Farewell My Friends

*It was beautiful as long as it lasted
The journey of my life.
I have no regrets whatsoever
Save the pain I'll leave behind.*

*Those dear hearts who love and care.
And the strings pulling at the heart and soul.
The strong arms that held me up
When my own strength let me down.*

*At every turning of my life I came across good friends,
Friends who stood by me,
Even when the time raced me by.*

*Farewell, farewell my friends
I smile and bid you goodbye.*

*No, shed no tears for I need them not
All I need is your smile.*

Roger Lee "Red" Huddleston

Roger Lee "Red" Huddleston was born May 21, 1931, in Wasta, SD, to Lee and Mayme Huddleston. The family lived in Elm Springs before moving to the Sturgis area.

After graduating from Sturgis High School, Red married Darla McNenny in 1951. Red worked in the timber for Homestake for 30 years as a welder. He retired in 1992. He, Darla, and their family lived in Roubaix, Lead, Deadwood, and Whitewood before moving back to Sturgis in 1997.

He enjoyed woodworking, listening to music, and going for long rides around the hills. His most enjoyment was going to the area restaurants, having coffee, and visiting with people. He had many friends of all ages.

Red, 81, Sturgis, died Saturday, April 20, 2013, at Sturgis Regional Hospital.

Red is survived by his daughter, Sandy (Darrell) Craig, Spearfish; his son, Rod (Candy) Huddleston, Whitewood; two sisters, Leona (Don) Casteel, Sturgis, and Lois (Blas) Skvicalo, Lead; one brother, Bill (Darleen) Huddleston, Buffalo, WY; and several nieces and nephews.

If you ask Red if there was anything in the world he would like, his reply was, "A few kind words and a smile" and "Have a nice day."

Red had so many medical issues, yet such a great attitude. He always said, "I'm fine." Now that he is in Heaven with Darla, he truly is fine!

Preceding him in death are his wife, Darla Huddleston; two sisters, Myrtle Malen and Betty Dubry; and one brother, Robert "Bud" Huddleston.

Red wanted a special thank you for all his kind, compassionate care given by Dr. Sayler, Dr. Holloway, Dr. Ferrier, Dr. Bryson, Dr. Hogue, and Dr. Tjaden, and their entire medical staff.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadee.funerals.com.
