

Heavenly Father,
When the Darkness comes over us
And the storms beat around us,
Shelter us under your wings.

SERVICES IN CARE OF
Furness Funeral Home
Gregory E. Furness
Clark, South Dakota
www.furnessfuneralhome.com

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree.
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea.
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night.
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight.
Then God combined these qualities,
There was nothing more to add.
His masterpiece was now complete,
He lovingly called it, Dad.

*Die Stunde kam uns viel zu früh,
Doch Gott der herr bestimmt sie
Ach wie so leer ist jetzt das Haus
Die Freude zog mit dir hinaus.*

In Remembrance of Marvin P. Waldner
May 8, 1968–August 10, 2021

Remember

Don't remember me with Sadness
Don't remember me with tears
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So Please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight
Remember that I am with you
Each morning, noon, and night

Please Hold him in your Arms, Dear Lord
And treasure him with care,
Make up for all he suffered and all he had to bear.
Please whisper in his ear, Dear Lord
In case he didn't know,
How much we truly loved him
And wished he was still here.
It broke our hearts to lose him
But he did not go alone,
For part of us went with him
The day you called him home.

Marvin P. Waldner, 53, passed away August 10, 2021. He was married to his wonderful wife, Helen, of 28 years. They had 5 children who passed his legacy on to their children. A celebrated father and grandfather, Marvin was a man who could brighten a room with his presence and befriend all who were present by the time he left.
