If You Could See Me Now

By: Patsy Stambaugh Deskins

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.

Though you may not understand
why I'm no longer here.

Remember my spirit; that's the real
me.

I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!

I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.

The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.

Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.

I've touched the walls of jasper,
dipped my foot in the crystal sea.

The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.

I've even seen you mansion;
someday I will meet you there.

Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.

So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!
