She and Bob then managed the Ranch House Motel. They also lived near Faith and the general Wall area, eventually settling in Quinn. Frances worked for the Hustead family in various capacities for many years.

Her husband also, and he praiseth her.

On the Banks of the Promised Land

*I have built my life on the solid Rock
Far away from the sinking sand
And I cast my eyes to the home that waits
On the banks of the Promised Land*

*There's a song of praise that is lifted there
By the saints and the angel band
And I long to go and to join the choir
On the banks of the Promised Land*

*Hallelujah, what a morning
When I reach for that nail-scarred hand
And I'm led from grace to glory
On the banks of the Promised Land*

*Every grief and pain that has found me here
Jesus knows, and He understands
They'll be washed away as I cross death's stream
To the banks of the Promised Land*

*Then I'll see the face of my Savior dear
Beckoned close by His sweet command
All my burdens gone; I will rest at last
On the banks of the Promised Land*

*O who will come and go with me?
I am bound for the Promised Land*
