OBITUARY

Isaac Baze Snell, Jr. was born November 25, 1949 to the late Isaac Baze Snell, Sr. and Maggie Howard Snell. He confessed Christ at an early age and united with the First Missionary Baptist Church in Ozark, Alabama. He was a faithful member and Sunday School teacher.

He attended D.A. Smith High School, and from there he left to further his education at Alabama A&M University. While there, he was drafted into the Army and served in the Vietnam War. After his tour in the Army he returned to Alabama A&M to complete his degree. After returning home he had several jobs, but none suited him like being a barber. He was at Snell's Barber Shop until the end.

Isaac leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, Laura Wilson; two grandsons, BJ McLeod and Tereon Wilson; two sisters, Joyce Griffin and Alfreda Byrd; three nephews, Marcel Griffin, Derrick (Milsey) Byrd, and Marquis (Candace) Byrd; four great-nephews, Terez, Justin, Kyle, and Kobe; one niece, Imani; a special cousin, Christine Thomas; and a host of relatives and friends.
