

Wesley W. Railsback

Wesley was born on September 9, 1941 in Atlantic, Iowa, to Lloyd Railsback and Betty (Kuhns) Railsback. He was a Truck Driver most of his working career and loved it, making many lifelong friends during his years on the road.

He loved to ride motorcycles with his good friends Tim and Gayle, whom he considered family. He hadn't missed a Sturgis Rally until last year. The tricks he and Tim would always play on each other were fun! The rally just won't be the same without him. He also really enjoyed the car races every Friday night when he could get to them. He most of all loved to dance. He would always talk about going dancing even when he knew he couldn't anymore. Sure hope he dances it up now!!!

Wes married Linda Fletcher (mom) in 1967, and they raised a family for the next 17 years. He married Carole in 1984 and after 12 years together she passed away in 1996. He and Linda (mom), after being apart for 22 years, found each other again and were together until mom's passing in 2015.

Wes passed on Wednesday, January 12, 2022, peacefully. He will be truly missed and not a day will go by without thinking about him.

He is survived by his son, Lawrence (Lori); daughters, Lisa, Brenda (Tracy) Arnio, and Stacy (Arlen) Sandine; eight grandchildren; and eleven great grandchildren.

Wes's mother, Betty (Kuhns) Railsback; father, Lloyd Railsback; late wife, Carole Railsback; and spouse, Linda (Railsback) Ciaramita preceded him in death.

Keep smiling and dancing dad!!

In Loving Memory Of

Wesley W. Railsback

ALWAYS THERE

When you remember me,
Please do not weep.
My body may not be there.
It has chosen to sleep.
I'm not that far away.
My soul lives on,
Looking down, watching over
You and everyone.
And when you feel sad
And life seems so blue,
Just remember
That my spirit has its arms around you.
And on those special days,
Times that you wish I could see,
That cool breeze flowing past you...
Well, that will be me,
So don't be sad.
Have no fear.
God has taken me under his wing,
But I'll always be near.
I still watch you
Every minute, every day.
My love and soul are with you,
And that's where they will stay.
