

Harriet Pearl Schneider

Harriet was born June 29, 1930, on a farm in Bowman County, ND, to Lester and Ethel Potter. She married Joseph Heinrich Schneider on January 29, 1952. She always said the birds were singing on this lovely 52 degree day in Dickinson, ND. She entered this marriage with a son, Roger, who Joe raised as his son.

They settled in Garrison, ND, where they had an additional seven children. Every year, she would end up in the hospital because of her asthma. In 1979, her sons encouraged them to move to Whitewood, SD, where the weather conditions were better and she no longer had to be treated for asthma. Joe died after they were married for 50 years. She continued to live in Whitewood until 2012 when she entered the Sturgis Regional Senior Care. They all loved her there and said they wished there were more like her. She never complained.

Harriet became one of Jehovah's witnesses on November 23, 1963. Through the Christian congregation, she had a large spiritual family. She liked to be one of the first to arrive at services and would stand near the door and welcome everyone and give them a hug.

Harriet Pearl Schneider, 83, Sturgis, died Thursday, October 3, 2013, at Sturgis Regional Hospital.

She is survived by seven children, Barbara of Rapid City, Henry (Chris) of Bridger, MT, Dennis of Mitchell, SD, Leo (Mackie) of Rawlins, WY, June and Diane (Paul) Kerr, all of Sturgis, and Marshel (Shannon) of Whitewood; and daughter-in-law, Marie Schneider of St. Onge. She also leaves behind 23 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; one brother, Wilbur (Marcella) Potter of Rapid City; and one sister, Elaine Buchholz of Stanton, ND. Many of the people who were touched by her called her "Mom."

She was preceded in death by her husband, Joe; son, Roger; grandson, Joey; granddaughter-in-law, Paula; brother, Lavern; and sister, Fern.

My beloved Holy Father Jehovah who resides in the Heavens, may your beautiful name be sanctified by all who deride it, we pray for your Holy kingdom to come as it did in Heaven, to abolish all the inequities of man who do not know the way To establish peace and love from its chambered walls.

We pray for the brothers locally and afar who are experiencing difficulties and vicissitudes of this earth. We as the advocates for Jehovah ask for you to fortify them so that they can confront Satan the Devil the accuser, who is constantly taunting Jehovah and his Sovereignty.

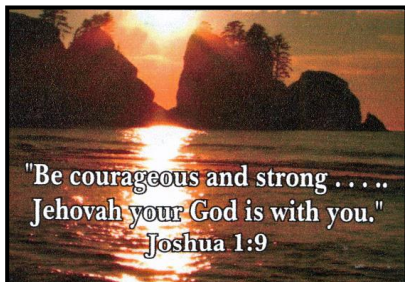

We thank you for a daily bread, our life and the physical means which you have granted us to live as part of your creation.

We ask you to please purify our heart, mind, and soul as to be in line with your objective of being your lowly servant.

We ask Father, that you please forgive us for our daily transgressions just the same as we have forgiven others.

We approach in prayer and ask for the former things in the name of the one who gave his life cheerfully, who suffered a criminals charge, and who died for the needs of the many, Christ Jesus.

Amen
