

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand.
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand;
The angel said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But when I walked thorough Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,
For God looked down,
Smiled at me.
And told me "Welcome Home."
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.

Esther Lillian Gross was born April 20, 1930, to Rhinehart and Rebecca (Walter) Gross at Hitchcock, South Dakota. She attended school in the Hitchcock area and helped her father on the family farm.

Esther accepted Christ as her Savior as a young lady and was baptized in July of 1943.

Esther married Jonas J. Tschetter on December 7, 1947, in Huron, South Dakota. They farmed in Beadle County until the end of 1966, when they moved to Huron.

She worked at Raven Industries, Tschetter Hohm Clinic, and the Violet Tschetter Memorial Home until her retirement in 1995.

Esther and Jonas took many bus trips and several trips to Arizona and Florida. She was a member of Mt. Olivet Church and the Ladies Missionary Society. She loved to cook, bake, do embroidery, latch hook, puzzles, and shop. She proudly made afghans for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her greatest joy was time with her family and cooking up a storm at the holidays.
