

Wilma M. Moore

Wilma Moore, 84, died February 5, 2014 at Primrose Retirement Center in Casper Wyoming surrounded by family. She had suffered from Alzheimer's disease for several years.

Wilma was born May 12, 1929 in Elm Springs South Dakota to William and Blanche (Felton) Schell. She grew up in the Elm Springs area and graduated from high school in New Underwood in 1947. She received three months of teacher training and began teaching at the Trigg School near Elm Springs in the fall of 1947. She continued with teacher education during summers while teaching during the winters. She graduated from Black Hills State College with a degree in elementary education in 1980. She enjoyed a long teaching career in rural Meade County teaching at several different schools including the Pierce School, Lakeside School, Royal School, Hope School, Enning School and Elm Springs School. She retired from teaching in 1993.

She married Martin Moore of Elm Springs on August 11, 1951. Martin joined the U.S. Air Force in 1951 and they were stationed in Illinois and Texas until 1953. They returned to the Elm Springs area where they ranched until their retirement.

Wilma liked children, ranch cats, traveling and spending time with her family. She enjoyed taking care of the house on the ranch in South Dakota for many years. She appreciated being part of the Elm Springs community where she spent most of her life. She had lived at Primrose Retirement Center in Casper for the last 10 years and enjoyed the friendship of many of the residents and staff, along with the social activities that were part of her life there.

Survivors include three sons, Michael, Salt Lake City, Utah, John, Sutherland, Nebraska, Jeff, Casper, Wyoming; two daughters, Wendy Moore, Casper, Wyoming and Becky Moore, Douglas, Wyoming; three brothers, Bob, Miles City, Montana, Donnie, Sundance, Wyoming, and Jerry, Wasta, South Dakota; four sisters, Norma Pellegrin, New Underwood, South Dakota, Carol Rants, Camas, Washington, Kathy Carneal, LaVerne, California, Linda Foss, Buffalo, Minnesota; and seven grandchildren, Brandon, Ryan and Jared Moore, and Jesse, Trevor, Shawn and Marti Parmenter; and two great grandchildren, Izabel and Theodore Parmenter. She was preceded in death by her husband, Martin; her parents; three brothers, Dean, Bill, and Jay; one sister, Shirley; and one grandson, Rhett.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations should be made to the Elm Springs Church or the Elm Springs Fire Department at 17801 Smithville Road, Wasta, SD 57791.

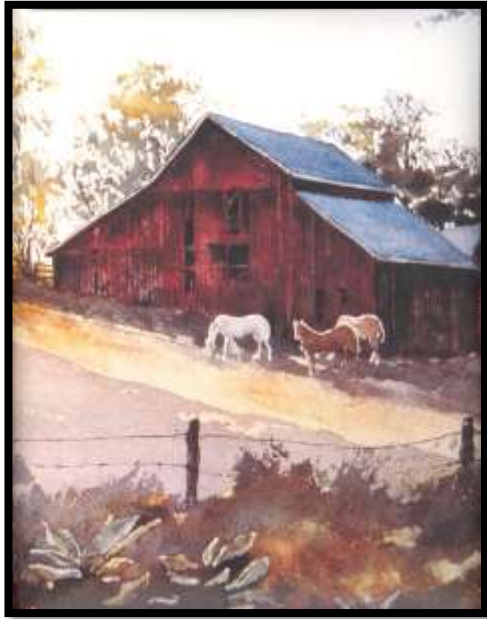

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

In Loving Memory Of

Wilma M. Moore

1929 ~ 2014

AMAZING GRACE

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me....
I once was lost but now am found,
Was blind, but now, I see.

Through many dangers, toils and snares...
we have already come.
T'was Grace that brought us safe thus far...
and Grace will lead us home.

When we've been here ten thousand years...
bright shining as the sun.
We've no less days to sing God's praise...
then when we've first begun.

In Loving Memory Of Wilma M. Moore

Born
May 12, 1929
Elm Springs, South Dakota

Died
February 5, 2014
Casper, Wyoming

Funeral Service
Monday, February 10, 2014, 2:00 p.m.
Elm Springs Community Hall
Elm Springs, South Dakota

Clergyman
Pastor Harold Delbridge

Soloist
Brandon Moore

Special Music
"Harbor Lights"

Pallbearers
Brandon Moore ~ Jesse Parmenter
Trevor Parmenter ~ Shawn Parmenter
Larry Gravatt ~ Clyde Arneson

Interment
Elm Springs Cemetery
Elm Springs, South Dakota