

Darwin Lee Reimer

Darwin Lee Reimer was born August 20, 1963, in Huron, SD, to William and Verna Mae (Thompson) Reimer. He graduated from Huron High School and attended the auto body repair program at Western Dakota Vo-Tech.

On May 9, 1988 he married Brenda Reder. The couple moved to Colorado where Darwin managed an auto body shop for Macco in Ft. Collins. They lived in Colorado for five years until moving to Sheridan, WY, where he managed the body shop at a Buick dealership. They moved to Gillette where he worked for Energy Dodge. In 1998 He worked for Caterpillar for two years. At the time of his death he was a haul truck operator for Dennis McCoy and Sons at the North Antelope Rochelle Mine near Wright, WY.

Darwin was a huge sports fan. He enjoyed watching his boys play baseball and basketball. He also enjoyed working in his yard.

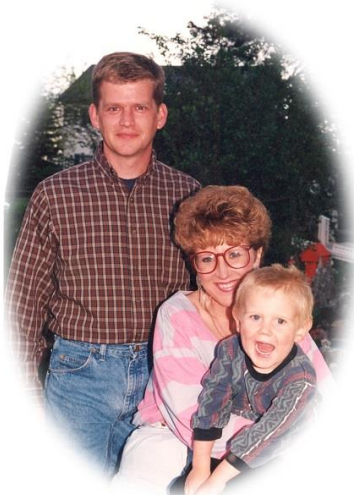

Darwin, 51, Gillette, WY, died Saturday, October 18, 2014 while working near Wright, WY.

Survivors include his wife, Brenda Reimer; sons, Gavin and Chase Reimer, all of Gillette, WY; brothers, Gary (Barb) Reimer, and Glenn (Toni) Reimer, all of Sturgis, SD; sisters, Shirley Buckley, Rapid City, SD, Bonnie Sondreal, Grand Forks, ND; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and brother-in-laws, David Buckley and D. Ray Sondreal.

A memorial has been established for his children's education.

We thank you for your presence and condolences.*

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone,
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.*
