

In Loving Memory Of

Lindsey Lee Taylor

July 19, 1977 ~ October 22, 2023

In Loving Memory Of
Lindsey Lee Taylor

Born

July 19, 1977
Sturgis, South Dakota

Died

October 22, 2023
Dickinson, North Dakota

Funeral Service

Saturday, October 28, 2023, 11:00 a.m.
Kinkade Funeral Chapel
Sturgis, South Dakota

Officiant

Pastor Jenene Earl

Special Music

“God Speed” “Changes”

Pallbearers

Dane Papenfuss Casey Papenfuss
Kyle Papenfuss Reed Papenfuss
Morgan Papenfuss Eli Boutwell

Final Resting Place

Piedmont Cemetery
Piedmont, South Dakota

*When I must leave you, for a little while,
Please do not grieve, and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

*The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch at the Whitewood Hall, following the burial.
Thank you for your presence and condolences.*

Lindsey Lee Taylor

Lindsey Lee (Papenfuss) Taylor, 46, of Richardton, ND, passed away on October 22, 2023, at CHI St. Alexius Hospital, Dickinson, ND, surrounded by her loving family.

Lindsey was born on July 19, 1977, to Keith Papenfuss and Leslie Bertolotto at Sturgis Hospital. She grew up with two older brothers. Lindsey attended school in Sturgis and local areas and graduated from Lead-Deadwood High School in 1996. She was married to Brent Taylor for 20 years, to this union three children were born. Her family and friends brought endless light to her life, and she loved and cherished every moment spent with them.

Lindsey made her home in Richardton, ND the last 13 years with her family by her side. Lindsey worked as a Certified Nurses Aid at Richardton Health Center. She always expressed compassion, empathy, and care to every one of her patients. She was memorable to all of her patients and coworkers for all of her hard work, bubbly personality, and colorful scrubs.

Lindsey most enjoyed spending time with her family and traveling to new places. She also indulged in several hobbies including crafting, sewing, gardening, canning, and mostly enjoyed cooking. Some of the best dishes she made were Swedish meatballs, knoephla soup, chicken quesadillas, and frogeye salad, which were always homemade from scratch. She was always planning and looking forward to the next big family trip. She cherished the moments of laughter when having family game nights, good conversation while sharing a homecooked meal with loved ones and doing karaoke in the garage. During the warm months of the year, she loved to take Sunday motorcycle rides with her husband, camping on the weekends, and hosting barbeques with the best appetizers and entrees. Her most frequently requested side was her potato salad, which only tastes the exact same when prepared by her. She was a collector of Dallas Cowboys merchandise, anything Disney, gnomes, and shoes. Her homecooked meals will be forever missed by her family and anyone that ever had the pleasure of dining in her kitchen.

Lindsey was baptized in the Methodist Church, and later converted with her husband to the Catholic Church, following the Catholic Baptisms of her daughters. She also participated in Catholic Daughters following her conversion.

Thankful for sharing her life are her husband Brent Taylor of Richardton, ND; children, Jozlyne, Payton, and Madilyne Taylor; parents, Keith (Judy) Papenfuss of West Fargo, ND and Leslie (Al) Bertolotto of Sturgis, SD; siblings, Trevor (Rachel) Papenfuss of Whitewood, SD, Justin (Misty) Papenfuss of Gillette, WY, Kelsey (Robert) Miller of West Fargo, ND, and Jacob Papenfuss of Grand Forks, ND; nieces and nephews, Casey (Jaycee), Seth, Brooke, and Morgan Papenfuss, Dane (Kiera), Kyle, and Reed Papenfuss, Eli Boutwell, Curtis, and Ethan Weeks; great nephews, Layton Papenfuss and Crew Papenfuss; Aunts and Uncles, Bill (Brenda) Kirsch, Kevin Kirsch, Kevin (Kay) Papenfuss; and cousins, Jamie, Ryan (Sarah), and Travis (Alona) Kirsch, Kasey Kirsch, and Christian (Kirsten) and Katelyn Kirsch, Nikki and Ryan Papenfuss.

She was preceded by her grandparents, Gordon Kirsch, Helen Kirsch, Louie Papenfuss; Aunt, Shelley Budish; Uncle, Lionel (Doc) Kirsch; cousin, Shannon Hudson.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

Lindsey Lee Taylor

Lindsey Lee (Papenfuss) Taylor, 46, of Richardton, ND, passed away on October 22, 2023, at CHI St. Alexius Hospital, Dickinson, ND, surrounded by her loving family.

Lindsey was born on July 19, 1977, to Keith Papenfuss and Leslie Bertolotto at Sturgis Hospital. She grew up with two older brothers. Lindsey attended school in Sturgis and local areas and graduated from Lead-Deadwood High School in 1996. She was married to Brent Taylor for 20 years, to this union three children were born. Her family and friends brought endless light to her life, and she loved and cherished every moment spent with them.

Lindsey made her home in Richardton, ND the last 13 years with her family by her side. Lindsey worked as a Certified Nurses Aid at Richardton Health Center. She always expressed compassion, empathy, and care to every one of her patients. She was memorable to all of her patients and coworkers for all of her hard work, bubbly personality, and colorful scrubs.

Lindsey most enjoyed spending time with her family and traveling to new places. She also indulged in several hobbies including crafting, sewing, gardening, canning, and mostly enjoyed cooking. Some of the best dishes she made were Swedish meatballs, knoephla soup, chicken quesadillas, and frogeye salad, which were always homemade from scratch. She was always planning and looking forward to the next big family trip. She cherished the moments of laughter when having family game nights, good conversation while sharing a homecooked meal with loved ones and doing karaoke in the garage. During the warm months of the year, she loved to take Sunday motorcycle rides with her husband, camping on the weekends, and hosting barbeques with the best appetizers and entrees. Her most frequently requested side was her potato salad, which only tastes the exact same when prepared by her. She was a collector of Dallas Cowboys merchandise, anything Disney, gnomes, and shoes. Her homecooked meals will be forever missed by her family and anyone that ever had the pleasure of dining in her kitchen.

Lindsey was baptized in the Methodist Church, and later converted with her husband to the Catholic Church, following the Catholic Baptisms of her daughters. She also participated in Catholic Daughters following her conversion.

Thankful for sharing her life are her husband Brent Taylor of Richardton, ND; children, Jozlyne, Payton, and Madilyne Taylor; parents, Keith (Judy) Papenfuss of West Fargo, ND and Leslie (Al) Bertolotto of Sturgis, SD; siblings, Trevor (Rachel) Papenfuss of Whitewood, SD, Justin (Misty) Papenfuss of Gillette, WY, Kelsey (Robert) Miller of West Fargo, ND, and Jacob Papenfuss of Grand Forks, ND; nieces and nephews, Casey (Jaycee), Seth, Brooke, and Morgan Papenfuss, Dane (Kiera), Kyle, and Reed Papenfuss, Eli Boutwell, Curtis, and Ethan Weeks; great nephews, Layton Papenfuss and Crew Papenfuss; Aunts and Uncles, Bill (Brenda) Kirsch, Kevin Kirsch, Kevin (Kay) Papenfuss; and cousins, Jamie, Ryan (Sarah), and Travis (Alona) Kirsch, Kasey Kirsch, and Christian (Kirsten) and Katelyn Kirsch, Nikki and Ryan Papenfuss.

She was preceded by her grandparents, Gordon Kirsch, Helen Kirsch, Louie Papenfuss; Aunt, Shelley Budish; Uncle, Lionel (Doc) Kirsch; cousin, Shannon Hudson.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.