*God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those weary eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
You bade no one a last farewell
You said goodbye to none,
Your loving heart had ceased to beat
Your stay on earth was done.
The flowers placed upon your grave,
May wither and decay
But the memories of our love for you
Will never fade away.*

Ms. Sabrina Fambro

Sabrina Nanette Fambro was born March 11, 1971 to John Mitchell and Mattie Fambro in Griffin, Georgia, where she lived until she reached adulthood. Sabrina attended and graduated from Griffin-Spalding County School System.

Sabrina later attended and became a member of Mount Olive Outreach Ministries in Griffin, Georgia. If you knew Sabrina, you knew that she was the biggest fan of the Dallas Cowboys. She also loved to have fun with her family and her friends.

Sabrina leaves to cherish her memories to her four loving and devoted children – two daughters: Nicorya Fambro and Tyzianna Berry; two sons: Donald Miller and Cameron Freeman; two grandchildren: O'Lillian and Keenya Fambro; two sisters: Roseline and Sharonda Lawson; three brothers: Charlie Lawson, Calvin and Alvin Hurt; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
