When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Celebrating The Life Of

Travis Decker

June 30, 1980 — January 13, 2025

Travis Jerald Decker, the son of Alan Dean Decker and Patricia Eileen (Moes) Decker, was born June 30, 1980. He attended schools and graduated from Huron High School. Travis worked at various factories during his time in Yankton. Upon moving back to Huron, Travis began working for one of the local grain elevators. He also worked at Hurst's Corner for a time, a job he thoroughly enjoyed.

Travis liked playing darts and even won a few tournaments. Travis cherished his time as a wrestler during his high school years and continued to follow the sport even after graduation. His favorite team to follow was the SDSU Wrestling Team. Travis enjoyed spending time outdoors, camping and boating. His favorite football team was the Buffalo Bills. Travis treasured the time spent with his many nieces and nephews.

Grateful for having shared in Travis' life are his mother, Patricia Decker of Huron; one brother, Charles (Amie) Decker of Carpenter; three sisters, Melissa (Oscar Luque) Decker of Huron, Jennifer Decker of Mitchell and Anna (Dustin) Walraven of Watertown; twelve nieces and nephews, Chayton, Patrick, Gracelynn, Kasandra, Oriana, Malcolm, Alexis, Alycia, Aliyah, Leo, Lily, Levi; four grand-nieces and grand-nephews, Leilani, Josiah, Gianna and Onika; his aunts and uncles, Theresa (Denis) Drake, Greg (Julie) Moes, Jim (Kathy) Moes, Sue (Tom) Beaudry, John (Donita) Moes, Joe (Karla) Moes, Laurie (Thomas) Chipman, Michele Hard, and Jeff (Lynnette) Moes; and numerous cousins.

Travis was preceded in death by his grandparents, Gerald and Eileen Moes and Richard and Anna Decker; his father, Alan Decker; one nephew, Owen Eaglestar; one uncle, Leonard Decker; one aunt, Peggy Moes; four cousins, Dana Beaudry, Nichol Moes Lotzer, Gary Moes and Scott Moes; and one great-cousin, Brittany Corcoran.
