Don't Cry for Me

Song lyrics written by Judith Baker

Don't cry for me!
Don't shed a tear.
I've been set free.
No need to fear.
God spoke to me.
My time has come.
He made a way to bring me home.
Don't cry for me!
My pain is gone forever.
Don't cry for me.
My body been made whole.
Don't cry for me!
We'll soon be back together.
Don't cry for me!
I'm well within my soul.

The Broken Chain

By Ron Tranmer

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

Reverend Dr. Jamie Simmons officiating Minister

Lee Andrew Jones, 87 years of age, went to be with his Lord on Sunday, November 23, 2025.

Lee, a.k.a., “Uncle Lee,” as he was affectionately known, was born March 19, 1938, in Hampstead, North Carolina, as the youngest son of the late Nathan and Hettie Nixon Jones. He was married to the late Mary Thomas Jones. To this union four children were born.

Uncle Lee was preceded in death by his oldest son, Anthony Thomas; and siblings, Raeford Jones, Violetha Brown, Sampson Jones, Hattie Mae Jones, Judith Austin, Margaret Bragg, and Emma Jacobs.

He was educated in the Pender County public schools and was the first in his family to graduate. Shortly after graduating, he moved to Ellenville, New York, and shortly thereafter, he was drafted Into the United States Army.

After serving in the military, Uncle Lee attended barber school in New York and became the sole proprietor of Lee’s Barber Shop.

He resided in many places including but not limited to Kentucky, Alabama, and Georgia before returning to North Carolina.

After thirty years of dedicated service at Hercifina Chemicals in Wilmington, North Carolina, as a plant operator, Uncle Lee retired in 1999.

In addition to his sons, Lee Andrew Jones, Jr., of the home, Clinton Godfrey Jones of Stone Mountain, Georgia, and daughter, Annette Thomas of Charlotte, North Carolina, Uncle Lee leaves to cherish his memory: his grandchildren, Alicia Thomas, Anthony Thomas, Brandon Spicer, Catelon Jones; two great-grandchildren; others close to his heart, Jason Wilson, David Washington, Dorothy Berrell, and Stephanie Shirley; and many nieces, nephews, and cherished friends.
