In Loving Memory Of Jerry Ray Goeringer

THE COIN

*Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor a thief purloin –
Oh, better than the minting
Of a gold-crowned king
Is the safe-kept memory
Of a lovely thing.*

High Flight

*Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds, - and done a hundred things*

*You have not dreamed of - wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air....*

*Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace.*

*Where never lark, or even eagle flew -
And, while the silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
- Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.*
