

We little knew that day, God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

The Broken Chain by Ron Tranmer

In loving MEMORY

He joined the South Dakota National Guard in 1954 and remained a member until 1965. Bob met Cecelia (Cel) Nelson in 1960 and they married in 1961 in Oldham. To this union, they were blessed with four children.
