

Sally Faye Garry

Sally was born January 2, 1945, in Aberdeen, SD, to Francis "Red" and Georgia (Gould) Halloran. She lived in Pierre, SD, until she was 13 and then moved to Sturgis SD, where she graduated high school in 1962. She attended Black Hills State College from 1962-1966, obtaining a B.S. in Education. She taught seventh and eighth grade English in Deadwood, SD, until 1968. She then began working at KBHB radio in Sturgis where she met many of her lifelong friends. It was also during this time that she met her soul mate, Joe Garry. Joe and Sally were married on March 9, 1973, in Sturgis. Sally left KBHB in 1976 and stayed at home for a few years with her children. She later went to work at the V.A. at Fort Meade as Patient Services Manager. She ended up making a career of it before retiring in February of 2007, and her knowledge, skill and compassion for her job never ceased to astonish people. Sally's infectious laughter and beautiful spirit will be remembered by every person whose life she touched.

To Celebrate The Life Of

Sally Garry

1945 ~ 2012

From Joe to Sally:

I construct elaborate protective devices against the world, but from time to time, someone comes along who walks right through these defenses, utterly unaware of them. When this happens, I have a sense of being on the edge of life itself, where amazing things can occur--and usually do. I realize that the door is open for hurt and rejection, but also for sharing and growing.

Is there any miracle on Earth to compare with that of discovering a new friend, or having that friend discover you? So much is at stake, but I will gladly risk everything to give a promising relationship a chance.
