A BLESSED LIFE

Janice Pierce Tipton was born on April 27, 1959, in Atlanta, Georgia to Rev. Hubert and Juanita Pierce. Janice was the second of three children, Vernancy and her "Baby Sister" Huenita.

She attended Therrell High School (Class of '77) where she met Gregory Tipton. They married on March 29, 1980, and shared 45 years together. Their union produced three children: Jennifer, David, and Jessica.

She worked at Del Taco Corporation as a junior accountant and later at SunTrust Bank until 2006. In 2007, she helped her sister, Vernancy, establish Chestnut Treehouse, where she served as a director until her passing.

Janice began her spiritual journey at Antioch East Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. J. E. Howard. She served at Believer's Bible Christian Church for over 20 years. Janice was a founding member of Ben Hill First Baptist Church which her father, Rev. Hubert Pierce founded in 1979.

When her father passed in 2013, she became First Lady when her husband Pastor Greg became Pastor of Ben Hill First Baptist Church.

Janice was known for her walk of faith and her dedication to prayer. She enjoyed reading the Bible and was recognized as a prayer warrior by many friends and family members. She was gifted with prophetic dreams.

On March 15, 2025, she transitioned to her heavenly home to be with Jesus, her Lord and Savior. She was preceded in death by her father, Rev. Hubert Pierce.

Janice leaves behind her husband, Pastor Gregory Tipton; her children, Jennifer Tipton, David Tipton, and Jessica Tipton Myers (Joel); her mother, Juanita Pierce; her sisters, Vernancy Asghar Paul (Perry) and Huenita Pierce; her nieces, Candace McGee (Leonard) and Sara Blasick; her nephews, Stanley Ridgeway (Starlat) and Shakil Asghar; aunts and uncles, a host of great nieces and nephews and numerous cousins, family members, friends, and the Ben Hill First Baptist Church Family.

Her favorite saying was: "If I live, I'm with God. If I die, I'm with God. Either way, I'm with God and I'm at peace."

Proverbs 31:28:

"Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her". This verse emphasizes the respect and admiration a woman receives from her family, both children and husband.

Proverbs 31:29:

"Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all". This verse highlights the exceptional qualities of the woman being praised, suggesting she is not just good, but outstanding.

Proverbs 31:30:

"Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised". This verse emphasizes that true praise and value come from a woman's character and relationship with God, not from superficial qualities like charm or beauty.
