

Acknowledgement

A most heartfelt thank you and appreciation for your expression of love and support during our time of bereavement. Your comforting words, kind gestures, and presence have been a great source of strength for us.

For My Dad

You were my shelter

Strong and Kind

A steady hand and a thoughtful mind

In quiet ways in all you do

You showed me love, without a cue

Your voice still echoes in my days

In lessons learned, in gentle ways

Although you're gone, you'll walk with me

In who I am, In who I'll be

I'll miss your laugh, your guiding light
Your strength that carried me through the night

Rest now Daddy, your work is done.
Your love lives on, It's never gone.

Love You Always.

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF Tyrone

Tyrone Davelle Jack Sr. was born in Kansas City, Ks on July 23, 1961, to Jimmie and Ponnie Jack. He was the youngest of four. Both parents and his brother, Jimmie Yadullah preceded him in death.

Tyrone graduated from Washington High School in 1979. He went on to work for General Motors, Kellogg's, and Ground Effects where he excelled in many areas at each one.

Tyrone accepted Christ as his Lord and Saviour and was baptized at a young age. He was a member at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church and loved to attend as well as visit other churches frequently. To know Tyrone was to love him. He knew just how to make you smile and laugh. He will truly be missed.

Tyrone married his loving wife Tiffany on March 20, 1999. They shared many years, and created many memories together. He leaves to cherish his loving memory, his wife Tiffany Jack. Two daughters, Tyla Jack, and Y'Tiya Jack, both of Kansas City, Mo. Three sons, Tyrone Jack II, Nathaniel McRoy, and Brandon Harris, all of Kansas City, Mo. Five grandchildren, Kyran Washington Jr., Kyla Washington, Ja'Meir Briggs, Tyln Jack, and Royal Davis. One brother, George Crump Sr (Karen) of Lawrence, Ks, one sister, Paula Jack of Shawnee, Ks, and a host of nieces, and nephews.
