

Donna was born June 30, 1932, in Oklahoma City, OK, to Frank and Velma (Bates) Stiverson. From Oklahoma City, the family moved to Nampa, ID. There she met the love of her life, Charles “Chuck” William Littleton, and they married on February 21, 1953, in Nampa. Together they had three children, Pauletta, Scot, and Brian. In 1963, Donna and Chuck moved their family to SD, and settled there.

Chuck and her ran an upholstery shop for many years, and later worked for Wheeler Lumber, from which she eventually retired. She remained in Whitewood, but began traveling and enjoying time with all her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.

Donna will always be remembered for helping others; she was loving and generous and she enjoyed the chances she got to travel to visit friends and family, especial visiting Alaska, where she loved to fish. Donna often helped out at the senior center, she loved to golf, and loved to cook and bake, especially when she was doing it for others.

Donna Mae Littleton, 87, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, mother-in-law, aunt, and friend to many, passed away on Tuesday, December 3, 2019, at her home in Whitewood.

She is survived by her children, Pauletta and Dean Bliege, Scot Littleton, and Brian and Teresa Littleton; her special friend, Jan Taylor; grandchildren, Jennifer, Dave, Bradley, Josh, Kirk, Branden, Mackenzie, Jordan, Jason, Morgan, and Jasmine; 12 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

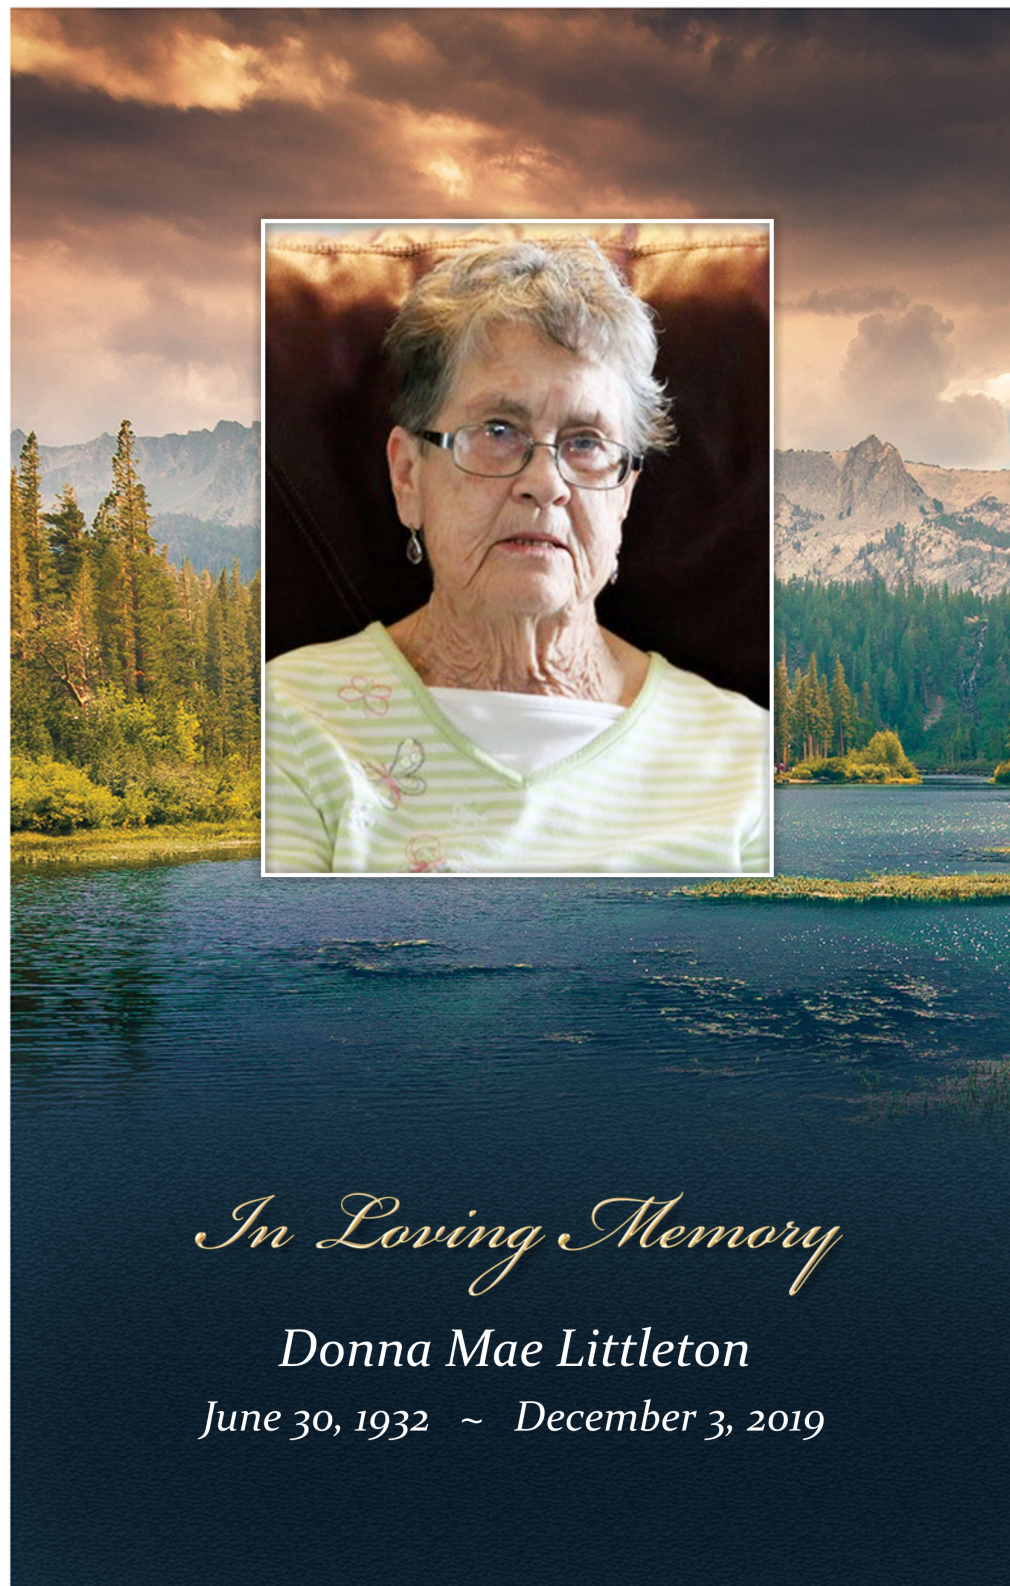

Donna was preceded in death by her husband, Chuck; her parents, Frank and Velma Stiverson; a brother, Jim; and a sister, Ina.
