

GOD'S Garden

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb;
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Peace Be Thine."

The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights have passed;
The ever patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

God Saw that you were weary
So He did what He knows best.
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered, "Come and rest."

You bid no one a last farewell,
Not even a goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

“The steps of a righteous man are ordered by the Lord.”

Joe Henry received in faith what Jesus Christ offered in grace. He accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age and joined Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church. During his walk in the favor of God, he served dutifully on the Usher Board and was groomed for a position on the Deacon Board. His dedication and faithfulness allowed him to be chosen to fulfill the position as the Chairman of the Deacon Board, a position he accepted with honor.

Joe Henry was taught to give his best effort at whatever he attempted. This quality, together with his people skills, made him well known throughout the community. He was gainfully employed by Farmers Co-Op to deliver propane gas to its customers in a timely manner. After his well-deserved retirement, he later worked part-time for the Madison County Recycling Center where he had the opportunity to rekindle old friendships and to build new ones.

A collage of 12 photographs arranged in a grid-like fashion. The photos depict various moments from the life of a family, primarily featuring a man and a woman. The images include: a woman in a white shirt and glasses; a man in a suit and tie; a man in a blue shirt and a woman in a blue top; a man in a light blue shirt and a woman in a white top; a group of three men; a group of four people outdoors; a man in a white tank top holding two children; a man in a white shirt and a woman in a white top; a man in a white shirt and a woman in a white top; a man in a white shirt and a woman in a white top; a man in a white shirt and a woman in a white top; and a man in a white shirt and a woman in a white top.

As one chapter ends, a new and promising one begins. Deacon Joe Henry Williams' chapter on earth abruptly ended on Monday, December 16, 2024, only for him to begin his eternal chapter and celebration with Jesus. Someone this special can never be forgotten.
