

Kevin was born on April 25, 1968, in Cherokee, Iowa. For the past few years, Kevin lived at the Meendering House.

Throughout his life, Kevin worked in janitorial services, made 3M clips, and packaged fishing lures.

Kevin enjoyed watching basketball games and other videos on his iPad, as well as participating in community activities. He liked spending time outdoors, often sitting on the porch, and enjoyed one-on-one moments with staff, especially playing catch with them. When the weather turned too cold, he would spend time in the four-seasons room or the living room. Though he loved the outdoors, Kevin also cherished his solitude. He had a deep appreciation for music, regularly attending concerts and sporting events.

Kevin will be remembered for being friendly to everyone, for his humor, and his hugs.

LASTING MEMORIES

*Lasting memories are here to stay,
Of loving smiles brought our way.
Angels heard God call your name-
Nothing will ever be the same.
Angels came to guide your way,
To God what a glorious day.
Home at last in His arms,
Away from all earthly harms.
God's hand reached out to hold-
While walking streets paved with gold.
No more pain, no more sorrow,
Only heaven's bright tomorrow.
We'll cherish our memories everyday,
So they'll never fade away!*
