I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all

I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play

And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times

A loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,

God wants me now... He set me free.

REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Cassandra Brown

Cassandra Scott Brown was born on June 19, 1962. She was the fourth of five children born to the late Honorable Mayor Lewis N. Scott and Julia L. Scott. Cassandra was educated in the public schools of Richland County School District One. She was a proud 1981 graduate of Lower Richland High School. After completing high school, Cassandra joined Job Corps. In Cassandra's pastime, she enjoyed visiting and fellowshipping with family and friends. Cassandra communicated daily by phone with a vast number of family members, friends, and members of the community. She prided herself on her sense of wit and her gift of gab. At the end of each conversation with Cassandra, she would leave you laughing or with a genuine smile on your face. Cassandra was married to the late William Brown, Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memories: three sons, Tauran (Michelle) Scott of Columbia, S.C., William Brown, Jr. of Eastover, S.C., and Charles Hayman, Jr. of Greenville, S.C.; five sisters, Barbara (Raymond) Billie, Brenda Higgins of Eastover, S.C., Gwendolyn (Randy) McCray of Atlanta, GA, Margaret Cunningham, and Greta Gadson of Columbia, S.C., three brothers, Anthony (Gwendolyn) Scott, Sr., Charles (Patricia) Roberson of Hopkins, S.C., and Walter (Rhonda) Jones of Eastover, S.C.; three grandsons, Syncere Grant, Keshawn Jones, and Isaiah Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

Her legacy lives on through the lives she touched and the many memories she leaves behind.
