

Huftalen, Ronald F.

Age 70, of Horseheads, NY passed away unexpectedly at home on Monday, October 17, 2016. Ronald was born on April 4, 1946 in Elmira, NY, son of the late Eugene and Mary (Golden) Huftalen. He was also predeceased by his brothers, Eugene and William. Ronald served in the US Army during the Vietnam War and was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in action on October 23, 1967, along with 2 Bronze Service Stars, Valorous Unit Award and Republic Gallantry Cross with Palm Unit Citation Badge. He retired from Woolworth's after several years as a manager. He will be missed dearly. Ronald is survived by his sister, Mary (Maurice) Wood; brothers, Clarence (Diane) and Arthur (Carol) Huftalen; many nieces, nephews and cousins. Family and friends are invited to call Friday, October 21st from 11 am to 1 pm at the James D. Barrett Funeral Home. Funeral services will follow at 1pm. Interment will follow in Woodlawn National Cemetery with full military honors.