

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

Barry Javor Wilson

Barry Javor Wilson was born October 3, 1987. He was the loving son of Barry and Etta Bouknight Wilson. He departed his earthly life on Wednesday, January 28, 2026. Javor was educated in Richland County Schools, graduating from Lower Richland High School. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of South Carolina in Columbia and a masters degree in marketing from Phoenix University.

Javor was previously employed by Metropolitan Life in Charlotte, N.C. His love for cooking led to many culinary creations that were enjoyed by family and friends. His devotion to family was evident by his willingness to bring his cousins together at his grandfather's house to celebrate monthly breakfast and honor all of their parents with a meal. Some people watch things happen, others wonder what happened, Javor made things happen. Javor became a member of the St. Mark Baptist Church of Gadsden, SC., as an adolescent. He had a beautiful voice and sang on the Youth Choir.

Javor was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Deaconess Ada Lloyd Bouknight, paternal grandparents, Deacon and Deaconess Joseph and Ada Ruth Cunningham Wilson and Aunt, Dolores Wilson Alford.

Celebrating the Life of

I didn't leave without saying goodbye
Although it seems that way.
I didn't leave scars and words unsaid
and you knew my loving and caring ways.
I left my love when I departed
so please keep it safely in your heart.
You carry me with each breath you take and you feel my smile shining on your face. Leave all the what ifs and keep what was.
Keep me in your heart and trust that I know I'm loved. May the Lord watch over you while we are physically absence
One from another Amen.
