

Shirley Jean Hise

Shirley was born April 23, 1929, at Bonilla, SD. Her parents were Joe and Lucille (Newman) Davis. She grew up on a ranch near Reva, SD, and attended country school. The family moved to Belle Fourche and Shirley married Leonard Hise at Belle Fourche in 1947.

Shirley lived in Washington, Idaho, Fruitdale, and in 1959, she settled in Sturgis. She worked at Ben Franklin for many years. After the store closed, she worked for McKay Drug for about a year. She worked for Allison Publishing for a short time and also for SD Job Service in the Green Thumb Project. She worked well into her 70's before retiring.

She liked to hunt, fish, plant and tend her abundant flower gardens, and yardwork. She raised cockatiels, finchs and parakeets. She also enjoyed cross stitch, crocheting, and arranging flowers. She loved being with her grandchildren and family.

Shirley Jean Hise, 82, Sturgis, died Wednesday, November 23, 2011, at her home surrounded by her loving family.

In Loving Memory Of

Shirley Hise

1929 ~ 2011

*When I must leave you, for a little while,
Please do not grieve, and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
