Lyle Dean Hendrickson

Lyle Hendrickson, 77, from Center, North Dakota passed away July 2, 2025, at Elm Crest Manor in New Salem, North Dakota, where he had been a resident for 22 months.

Lyle was born July 27, 1947, in Sturgis, South Dakota, to Melvin and Anna Mae (Sisk) Hendrickson. He graduated from Sturgis Brown High school in 1965. Lyle attended Black Hills State obtaining a BS degree in social work. He started his social work career with the Department of Veterans Affairs at Fort Harrison, Montana. Lyle returned to Fort Meade, South Dakota and retired after 28 years of service.

Lyle loved the outdoors, especially the Black Hills. Lyle was an avid fly fisherman, until his health would not allow him to wade the waters that he loved so much. Lyle turned to the boat, fishing for walleye with his son Treavor. He enjoyed NFL football games and would sit by the phone awaiting his weekly bets with Treavor. He rarely picked a favorite team, but he followed the Chicago Cubs, Gonzaga Bulldogs and the Golden State Warriors. Lyle's all-time passion was watching his granddaughters play basketball and volleyball.

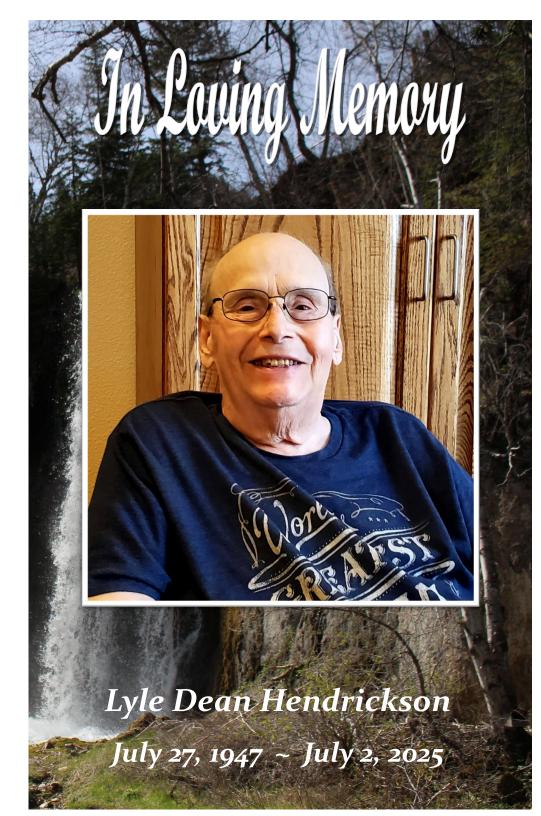

Lyle is survived by his wife, LeaAnn Hendrickson of Center, North Dakota; Son, Treavor (Jayme) Hendrickson of Center, North Dakota; Granddaughters, Aspyn Hendrickson, Oakley Hendrickson, Suttyn Hendrickson, and Grandson, Huxton Hendrickson all of Center, North Dakota; Daughter, Deena (Daryl) Olson of Puyallup, Washington; Grandsons, Justin (Lacey) Jay and Bradley Jay both of Puyallup, Washington; Great Grandchildren, Watson Jay, Kolson Jay, Olivia Jay and Conner Jay; Daughter, Deb Boone of Puyallup, Washington; Grandson, Gavin (Madison) Lee of Great Falls, Montana; Great Grandchildren, Lucy and Gibson Lee of Great Falls, Montana; Grand Daughters, Grace (Joey) Sladek of Goodyear, Arizona, and Sydnie Boone of Rapid City, South Dakota; brother Linn Hendrickson of Sturgis, SD. Lyle is also survived by 4 nieces, numerous cousins and 4 brothers-in-law.

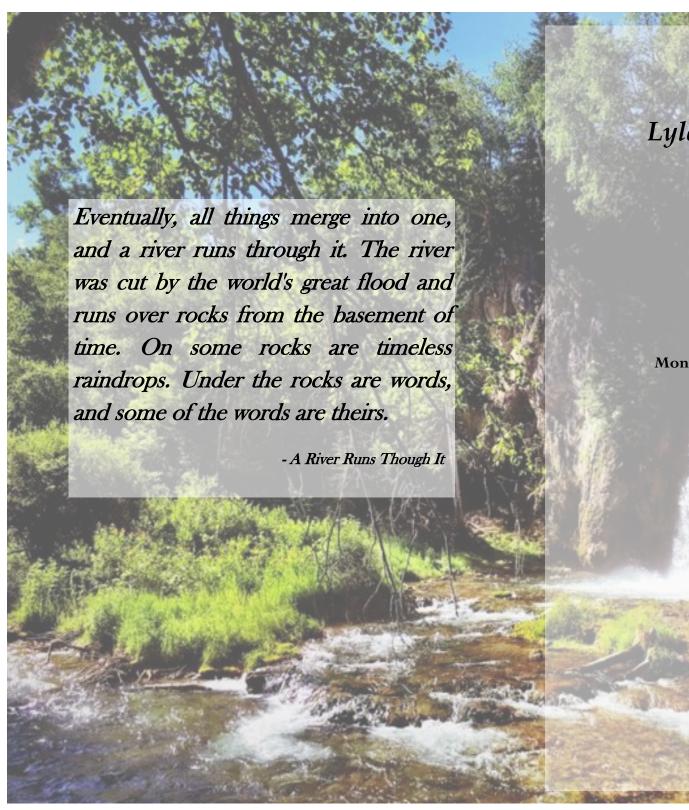

Lyle was preceded in death by his parents Mel and Anna Mae Hendrickson. The family would like to express our gratitude for all the excellent care Lyle received at Elm Crest Manor.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to any local cancer research institute or the Jimmy V Foundation: www.v.org. Lyle had two separate bouts with Cancer and fought tooth and nail to spend as much time as he could with friends and family.

DaWise-Perry Funeral Home of Mandan has assisted with services.

Condolences may be left for the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

In Loving Memory Of Lyle Dean Hendrickson

Born July 27, 1947 Sturgis, South Dakota

Died
July 2, 2025
New Salem, North Dakota

Memorial Service Monday, August 18, 2025, 11:00 a.m. Kinkade Funeral Chapel Sturgis, South Dakota

Officiant
Pastor John Tesnow

Musical Selections
"The Old Rugged Cross"

Honorary Pallbearers
All His Grandchildren

Final Resting Place Bear Butte Cemetery Sturgis, South Dakota