CELEBRATING J'KAYLEN

J'Kaylen Clark, born on August 25, 2011, in Warner Robins, Georgia, was a beloved 14-year-old from Macon. He was the child of Ellis Clark and Kwajaline Trammell-Clark and passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 21, 2026.

As a student at Westside High School in Macon, J'Kaylen was admired for his cheerful spirit, generous heart, and infectious smile. His loving nature and playful character brought happiness to everyone around him, always making others feel valued and appreciated. The memories J'Kaylen created will remain with those who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Calvin Trammell, his oldest brother, Daishae Reynolds, and his uncle, Terrance Trammell.

J'Kaylen is survived by his devoted parents, Kwajaline Trammell-Clark and Ellis Clark; grandmothers: DeLois Trammell and Brenda Seabrooks; sisters: Aatasma Trammell, Alayah Trammell, Ellisia Clark, and Amaya Lardge; brothers: Malik Clark and Amauri Lardge; nephew, Camren Scott; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family, and friends who will miss him deeply.

Although J'Kaylen's life was short, he made a lasting impact. The love, joy, and strength he shared will be treasured forever.
