

Justin “Woody” Plunkett

Justin “Woody” Plunkett was born April 19, 1983, in Spearfish, SD, to Clark and Glenda Plunkett. He was raised in Whitewood and graduated from Sturgis Brown High School with the Class of 2002. He later went on to work for BNSF as a track maintenance technician for the railroad.

Justin lived in Whitewood most of his life, but the railroad took him all over the country. He enjoyed traveling, and specifically to Glacier National Park.

In his spare time, Justin could be found with family and friends, camping, starting fires, or fishing the shores of the Missouri River, Orman Dam, the lakes of Custer State Park, and anywhere else he could drop a line.

A loving son, brother, uncle, grandson, nephew, cousin, and always, faithful friend, Justin touched the lives of all he met.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone,
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.*
