

June Carol (Korpi) Treber

June was born June 3, 1940, in Newell, SD, to John and Helen (Kumpula) Korpi. She graduated from Lead High School in 1958 and received her teaching degree from Black Hills State College. Her heart has always been in the Black Hills, and on July 16, 1960, she married the love of her life, David William Treber, in Lead, SD. June was a woman of character, integrity, passion, and service. She had a career teaching children to love learning in the Lead-Deadwood School System from 1970 to 1998. While she had a career teaching, she truly taught all others by example. June has left a loving legacy for her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and friends. She captivated those around her with her vigor for life. She took every opportunity to let her loved ones know how special they were in the form of notes, emails, cards, visits, and preserving memories. She and David moved to Spearfish in 2000 to spend their retirement years. She emulated patriotism and a love for God, as she was a member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church.

June Carol (Korpi) Treber, 78, passed away peacefully with family at her bedside at Regional Health Hospital in Spearfish, SD, on July 22, 2018, after an unexpected illness.

She is survived by her daughters, Terri Lynn (Dana) Cooper, Rochester, MN, and Donna Rae (Will) Reece, Spearfish, SD; granddaughters, Kristina (Justin) Sokol, Rochester, MN, Larissa (Joe) Jording, Aurora, CO, and Madison Reece, Spearfish, SD; great-grandchildren, Cooper Sokol, Kendall Sokol, and Lily Jording; sister-in-law, Karen Korpi, Sandy, UT; special friend, Hope (Slaughter) Bryant; and numerous friends and family including her Kumpula cousins.

1940 ~ 2018

The family would like to invite you to join them for fellowship and lunch following the service in the church hall. We thank you for your presence and condolences.

I Am There . . .

I am there when . . .

Aspen leaves shake in the breeze
Stars sparkle in the night sky
You hear the sound of waterfalls
Diamonds glisten on freshly fallen snow
You smell the scent of a fresh rain.

I am there when you experience . . .

Thunderstorms and their beauty
The stillness of the night
The warmth of the sun
The brightness of the moon.

I am there when . . .

Rainbows bridge heaven and earth.

I am always there and I love you!
