

I'll Endure

*I know not of tomorrow
I walk by faith today.
Tomorrow's in my Savior's hands
and He will lead me all the way.*

*If I should slip or struggle
my Savior's hands is there,
To steady me along my way
If life gets hard to bear.*

*And even if I trip and fall
there's One who'll carry me.
So why then should I worry
when one loves me as much as He?*

*I know not of tomorrow
But of this I know for sure,
My Savior's there and He does care
And with Him I'll endure.*
