

Stephen Paul Lesmeister

Stephen Paul Lesmeister was born September 18, 1951, in Mobridge, SD, to Arnold “Arnie” and Joan (Simon) Lesmeister.

He loved his family, especially his grandchildren. He was a hobby photographer, loved gardening, and worked as a crude oil hauler for a large part of his life. He retired in December 2017 and pursued a passion of his, building toy barns.

Steve, 67, died on Saturday, December 1, 2018, at his home in Newcastle, WY.

Steve is survived by his wife of 31 years, Sheryl; five sons, Jim (Peter), Craig (Esper), Jason (Sarah), Cody, and Jesse (Amanda); eight grandchildren, Tanner, Marc, Mariah, Maegan, Victoria, Devon, Katie, and Laurel; five great-grandchildren; sister, Linda (Ed) Mathews; father-in-law, Marlin Ingalls; two sisters-in-law, Debbie (Paul Delbridge) and Marla Griffith; and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Arnie and Joan Lesmeister; mother-in-law, Ethel Ingalls; and a stillborn daughter.

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.*
