Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

Life Reflection

Daisy Mae Moss Doriesen, born on June 10, 1935, in Norwood, Warren County, GA, peacefully passed away on May 3, 2024 at the age of 88. She was the loving daughter of the late Eddie Wood and Annie Mae Martin Moss. Daisy was the cherished fourth child of her five siblings. Her warm presence and caring nature left an indelible mark on all who knew her. She was known for her kindness, her unwavering faith, and her dedication to her family. Throughout her life, Daisy brought joy and comfort to those around her. Her nurturing spirit extended beyond her immediate family, touching the lives of many in her community.

After the sudden death of her father in 1942, the family relocated to the rural area of Wilkes County until 1944 when her mother purchased property on North Street for the family in Washington, GA. She graduated from high school in May 1953. Daisy joined Cherry Grove Baptist Church at an early age with her family and became a faithful working member. As an adult, she served as a Sunday School teacher and actively participated in the church's kitchen ministry, reaching out to the sick and those unable to attend services. Known affectionately as Ms. Daisy, she was a gentle shoulder to lean on and dedicated herself to making every project she worked on a success. She was a devoted family person, always willing to share even if it meant giving her last.

Daisy was preceded in death by her husband, Henry ("Big Henry" "Sonny"), four siblings, grandson Chavez, and son Brian Henry. She is survived by her four loving children, Andrea (Keith), Stanley, Andrew Wesley (Yolanda), and Charles (Elaine). She leaves behind grandchildren Davanise, Richard "Rick", Jamarcus, Mia, Gabrielle Daisy-Louise, and Andrew Zechariah, as well as 10 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Daisy's memory will be forever treasured by her family and friends. She leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and strength that will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to know her.

We will miss her words of wisdom, even when not asked for. We will miss her infectious smile, her heartfelt jokes, and, most of all, the captivating stories of her life. Her presence brought light into our lives, and her absence leaves a void that cannot be filled.

We love you dearly and cherish all the memories we have shared. Though you may be gone, your spirit will live on in our hearts forever.
