

I give you this one thought to keep - I am with you still - I do not sleep.

*I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain.*

When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.

*I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not think of me as gone -
I am with you still - in each new dawn.*

~by Robin Drummond

Celebrating The Life Of John Morris Brewick

John Morris Brewick, 81, of Rapid City passed away Saturday, July 12, 2025.

John was born May 6, 1944 in Mitchell, SD to Emmet and Mabel (Callison) Brewick. He married Dorothy "Rowdy" Rees on April 29, 1972 in Austin, MN. John graduated from Washington High School in Sioux Falls, South Dakota in 1962 and received a Bachelor of Science in History degree from the University of South Dakota in 1967. During his college years, he was a member of Beta Theta Pi where he met many of his lifelong friends. John entered the United States Army in 1967 and served in Viet Nam from February 1968 to January of 1969 when he was honorably discharged.

After his military service, he received a Master's Degree in The Art of Teaching from the College of St. Thomas in 1970. He began his teaching career at the Gerard School located at the Historic Hormel Home in Austin, Minnesota. It was in Austin where he met and married Dorothy "Rowdy" Rees. Their four month courtship led to a marriage of 53 years.

The Black Hills called the couple back to South Dakota in 1974 and what better place to hunt and fish than the Black Hills! John began his teaching in Rapid City at North Junior High School in 1974, transferred with many teaching buddies to Dakota Junior High when it opened and finished his career at Stevens High School. After retirement, John spent his time fishing, hunting, reading and writing. He also traveled to many wonderful places with Rowdy and other traveling companions. His favorite travel destination was Israel. He was enamored by its physical, cultural and historical characteristics.

John and Rowdy welcomed Leah Jane into the world in August of 1975 and enjoyed five beautiful years before releasing her to the arms of the Divine in September of 1980. They raised two sons, Michael (born 1978) and Andrew (born 1981).

He is survived by his wife Rowdy of Rapid City, devoted sons Michael Brewick (Sarah Hanzel) of Rapid City, Andrew Brewick (Mary Ellen) of Moscow, ID, four adored grandchildren Mabel, Evelyn, Lars, and Perry Brewick, four special cousins and their families Dennis Holm (Judy), Marcie Holm Schroeder (Gary), Mary Kay Holm, and Debra Fouberg (Patty).

He was preceded in death by his daughter Leah Jane Brewick, his sister Barbara and his parents.

A memorial has been established for the care of the Wizard of Oz set and other attractions at Storybook Island, 1301 Sheridan Lake Road Rapid City, SD 57702 attention Brewick Memorial.

In Loving Memory
John Morris Brewick

Born
May 6, 1944
Mitchell, South Dakota

Died
July 12, 2025
Rapid City, South Dakota

Celebration of Life
2:00 p.m. ~ Friday, July 18, 2025
First Congregational United Church of Christ
Rapid City, South Dakota

Clergy ~ Rev. Erin Erickson

Special Music
"Oh What A Beautiful World" ~ Willie Nelson
"Blue Eyes Crying In The Rain" ~ Willie Nelson
"What A Wonderful World" ~ Louis Armstrong
"If I Had A Boat" ~ Lyle Lovett

Honorary Pallbearers
Jim Coleman ~ Sam Mortimer ~ David Hersrud
Charlie Hart ~ Bob DeMersseman ~ Andy Knight
Clacie Neu ~ Keith Catron

Interment
1:30 p.m. ~ Monday, July 21, 2025
Black Hills National Cemetery
Sturgis, South Dakota

Military Honors
Camp Rapid Honors Team
VFW Post #1273